From the Couch

Bro. Jack is Retiring. After more than twenty years of serving this church as janitor (10 years) and in maintenance (10 years), Bro. Melton Jack is retiring effective April 1st. He has been very conscientious in performing his duties well. Bro. Jack knew that visitors often make judgments about our congregation based on how well the facilities are kept. He also was aware of the stewardship that was entrusted to him and never wanted to waste the Lord's money. We love bro and sis. Jack and are very grateful for the work they have done. Although Melton will no longer be involved in maintenance of the facilities, he and Wilma will be involved in other ministries here.

If anyone is interested in volunteering to help with the building maintenance, please see Dean McKaskle.

Report on Couples' Retreat. This was the 19th couples' retreat that was begun by Carl Meadows and continued by Wade Lynn after Carl passed. For the last few years, Dwayne and Leslie Daniel have organized the retreat. This year's theme was "The Four Seasons of Marriage" based on Gary Smalley's book by the same title. There were seventeen couples who heard lessons from Dennis Daniel, Dwayne Daniel, Jay Wilkins, Shamron Jackson and myself. We are grateful to Dwayne and Leslie for their work in this important area.

Couples Retreat 2022

Fund Raising Dinner for the Jail Ministry

Saturday April 2nd from 6-8 pm @ the Burns Church of Christ Fellowship room. We need 8 at each table of generous givers. These funds are used for the chaplain and necessary supplies for the jail. Without your support we cannot accomplish all we do in jail. Our goal is to not have to have another fund raising until next year. If you are not able to attend, please consider giving, this is necessary for us to bring Jesus to jail, supply Bibles, jail whites, etc.

Please be in prayer that 2022 is our YEAR to bring all things to inmates for salvation, recovery and education. Help them get out and have a productive job, license and Jesus! Sign up sheet is in the lobby.

New Christian

Hailey Connell was baptized on March 19 by Shamron Jackson. Her address is 1346 Hwy 48 S Dickson, TN 37055. Let's all welcome Hailey to the congregation and encourage her as she begins her walk with the Lord.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the family of Shirley Sweat, Brant Sweat's grandmother, who passed away on Sunday, March 27. Her service is in Oklahoma on Saturday, April 2. Pray for Brant & Mary during this time of loss.

*It's the little things we do an say
That mean so much as we go our way.
A kindly deed can life a load
From weary shoulders on the road.*

Willa Hoey
