The Very Least I Can Do

Jesus has created in me a marvelous new life
 ...the least I can do is to always for Him be living

Jesus have given me many wonderful blessings
 ...the least I can do is pass that on in blessed giving

Jesus have lovingly pardoned all of my sins
 ...the least I can do is show compassion and be forgiving

Living, giving, and forgiving – this is the very least that I should do because He has done this for me.

“For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” (1 Pet. 2:21).

Welcome New Members

Meet Julie and Easton Corlew. They have placed membership with us. They live on Hwy 70. Easton is in the 7th grade at Greater Things Academy. Please help us welcome them to our congregation.

How Families Grow Spiritually

You don't grow a Christian family by going through a daily ritual. But neither do you grow one without planning and definite cultivation. Here are some proven activities that help a family grow spiritually.

- Attending worship together (Hebrews 10:25).
- Worship together in daily devotionals (1 Chronicles 23:30).
- Giving thanks to God at mealtimes (1 Timothy 4:4).
- Having fun together (Ecclesiastes 9:9).
- Expressing love and affection openly and freely (Proverbs 16:24).
- Undergirding and supporting each other's activities and interests (Philippians 2:4).
- Working together; accepting responsibility for doing chores and jobs around the house (Proverbs 20:11).
- Reaching out to others as a Christian family (Ephesians 4:28).

Don't forget the Spring Sing Sunday night!! Please bring finger foods and desserts to serve our guest at our Spring Sing. Drinks will be provided. We normally have many visitors to this yearly event. Your help is appreciated.

JOY GROUP OUTING

May 2 Lunch at Mestizo's Mexican Cuisine. Sign up sheet is in the foyer. Reservations have been made for 25.

Living Up To Your Name

By Joe Slater

A popular cliché says, "There's nothing in a name." That's an overstatement, to say the least. Would you name your daughter Jezebel?

Names in Scripture often have significance. My name is Joseph, the name Rachel gave to her firstborn son (Genesis 30:24). The name means "add," in keeping with her hope that "the Lord shall add to me another son."

Sometimes a name reflected the person's character. Jacob's name means supplant or deceive. Sure enough, in his early years Jacob took undue advantage of his brother and hoodwinked his father. God later changed Jacob's name to Israel, meaning strive or wrestle with God (Genesis 32:28). Jacob had wrestled with a physical manifestation of God as he sought His blessing. No longer would he obtain what he desired by underhanded methods. The change in names coincided with a change in character.

People didn't always live up to their name, however. While the prophet Micaiah ("who is like Yahweh?") behaved consistently with that honorable name (1 Kings 22:14), his nemesis Zedekiah was anything but righteous and didn't really respect the Lord righteousness or His righteous word (1 King 22:24).

If you are in Christ, you are a Christian, the name the disciples were called in Antioch (Acts 11:26). Luke used a peculiar word for "called" which indicates that the Lord Himself gave that name (see Isaiah 62:2 where a new name was prophesied). It means one who belongs to Christ, one who follows Christ. It differs little, if at all, from a disciple (learner-follower). Let each one of us strive to live up to the noble name "Christian"!

GOD IN OUR FAMILIES

Happy moments: praise God (James 5:13).

Difficult moments: seek God (Psalm 63:1).

Quiet moments: worship God (Psalm 4:4).

Painful moments: trust God (Psalm 7:1).

Every moment: thank God (Psalm 100:4).
