Jesus the Last Adam

Paul called Jesus the “last Adam” in 1 Corinthians 15:45. Just as the first Adam brought death upon humanity, so Jesus, the last Adam brings spiritual life. After reading 1 Corinthians 15:21-22, 45-49, and Romans 5:12-19, you can see the following comparisons between Adam, our ancestor, and Jesus our Savior.

Both Adam & Jesus:

- Miraculous earthly existence
- Triune being (Gen. 2:7; Matt. 28:19)
- Named by God (Gen. 5:2; Matt. 1:21); bride’s name after husband (Acts 11:26; Isa. 62:2; 65:15).
- Called Son of God (Luke 3:38; John 3:16)
- Both “slept”
- Given bride after awakened from sleep.
- Law of reproduction: first by miracle followed by natural law
- Made to be Head over bride
- Purchase price for bride (rib, blood), opened sides (Gen. 2:22; Jn. 19:33-34)
- Suffered for wife’s sin (Gn. 3; Eph. 5:25)
- Adam brought sin & death; Jesus brought life & justification
- Adam a living soul; Jesus a life-giving Spirit
- Adam, father of earthly; Jesus, Lord of spiritual
- Adam’s children created in image of God; Jesus, disciples recreated in image of Jesus who is God (Eph. 4:24). Human rights laws based on creation (Gen. 9:6; James 3:9); love of brethren based on re-creation (1 Peter 1:22).
- What Adam lost for himself & posterity, Jesus gained for posterity (immortality, fellowship with God, dominion).

WBYG Fall Schedule

The youth class has begun our new series “Eat Your Fruits.” In this series we’re going to focus on the fruits of the Spirit. It can be challenging as Christians to uphold all these characteristics in our lives and to walk in the light of the Spirit. Even though this can appear to be an uphill battle, it is important to note that Paul writes in Galatians 5:22 “But the fruit of the Spirit...” Someone who is filled with the Holy Spirit and is pursuing Christ is going to show the results of this relationship. Thankfully this is not something that we have to come up with on our own. It takes us putting our hearts in the right place for God to use us. Fall Retreat sign-ups are out! Go to the link in the Facebook group or on Instagram to sign up.

The deadline to sign up is August 31st . No applications will be accepted after this date.
