Thank You - Bible Class Teachers

Teaching others Bible Truths is the greatest job in the world. It carries with it a heavy responsibility (James 3:1) and demands a great amount of work. This vital work of the church, when done correctly, is a true labor of love. Good teachers spend a great amount of time and energy in preparation of teaching and being careful to only teach the true Word of God (2 Timothy 2:15). They involve themselves physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually in their teaching in order to be Christ-like, to bring souls to Him and glory to God. Bible Class teachers are instructing those they teach with the doctrine of Christ. They help change lives and they strengthen the Church.

Too often, they labor tirelessly without being shown the proper appreciation for them and their work. Discouragement is sometimes a foe teachers will face. As members of the congregation, Bible Class teachers deserve our sincere gratitude and our frequently expressed appreciation for the work that they do. I urge you to pray for Bible teachers, and encourage Bible teachers often. May God bless faithful men and women who are gladly using their abilities in teaching Bible Classes.

Joe Christopher Pulaski, TN
