Thank You

Thank you for all the calls, texts, cards sent at the passing of our mother, Betty Hall. Thank you for the flowers and the delicious meal after the funeral. We love and appreciate the church family at White Bluff. In Christ, The family of Betty Hall

The words “Thank You” don’t seem to adequately convey our appreciation for the outpouring of love and generosity we have been shown during these last two weeks. Our family and neighbors have been a source of strength and light to help us find our way through the storm. The greatest lesson of all is that the strength and power that lies within a tornado pales in comparison to the strength and power found in our Lord. Mary the Lord bless and keep you all. In Him, Garry & Margie Sensing

We want to express our gratitude for the prayers, calls and cards. We love our church family. Ralph & Janie Taylor

Words cannot express how thankful we are for all the texts, calls and visits from our church family. The food was such a blessing and we thank all those who provided it. We are so blessed to have such a loving church family.

Thank you! The Linda Baker family

We appreciate and love you all for the love and support during this hard time of losing our grandmother.

Love Brant & Mary Sweat

Baptisms

Peter and Breana Chimera were baptized by Shamron Jackson on Wednesday, Dec. 13 after Bible Classes. After studying the Bible together they decided they wanted to make sure they were baptized for the right reason. We commend them for their love for God and His Word.

EACH ONE OF US IS GOD'S SPECIAL WORK OF ART.
THROUGH US HE TEACHES AND INSPIRES, DELIGHTS AND ENCOURAGES, INFORMS AND UPLIFTS ALL THOSE WHO VIEW OUR LIVES.

“Change the former way of life that was part of the person you once were, corrupted by deceitful desires. Instead, renew the thinking in your mind by the Spirit and clothe yourself with the new person created according to God’s image in justice and true holiness.”

EPHESIANS 4:22-24

There’s No Place Like Home

A good home is such a wonderful place. It seems that we are always wanting to go home. And we especially love being home for the holidays. In fact, there is a traditional song that testifies to that fact. What is it that is so great about home? Let’s note a few of them through an acrostic. And since the church is our heavenly home on the earth (Eph. 2:19), these will certainly apply there, as well.

Harmony – How marvelous it is when family members get along with each other. When this happens, the times together are cherished and memorable. This is also true with the church family. “Behold, how good and how pleasant it is For brethren to dwell together in unity” (Psa. 133:1).

Optimism – A good home is desired, in part, because of the positive nature it presents. Everyone enjoys being together in a home where there is lots and lots of cheerfulness and sunniness. Without a doubt, this is true of a church home, also. “Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end” (Heb. 3:6).

Mercy – Home is the place where bountiful forgiveness is offered. The best homes are the ones that demonstrate agape love for one another, which always leads to overlooking shortcomings. There should be copious amounts of love and forgiveness in the Lord’s church, as well. “And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you” (Eph. 4:32).

Encouragement – Another of the reasons we enjoy being part of a wonderful home is the strength and inspiration that we receive. It is where we can get great encouragement to keep on keeping on. The church home should also be a place of boosting one another.

“Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing” (1 Thess. 5:11).

that God has given you victory over many things
over the past year.
