People need to be encouraged.

Here's the challenge: send an e-mail this week that the recipient will not delete. Send a note in the mail that will be saved for years. Leave an encouraging voice mail that will be saved for a long time. Go up to someone and just do whatever you can to encourage as an expression of Christian love.

FOLLOWING FATHER'S EXAMPLE A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

Follow God's example, therefore, as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God. EPHESIANS 5:1-2 NIV

From the Couch

Preaching the Gospel. In the last few days, it was my privilege to preach on Jan. 30 at the East Ridge Church of Christ in Chattanooga, and on Feb. 9 at the Freed-Hardeman Univ. Lectureship. On April 3-6 I will be with the McEwen Church for a Gospel Meeting and later, on April 26, I will be speaking at the Southeast Institute of Biblical Studies Lectureship in Knoxville.

Power in Prayer. The early church prayed diligently, fervently, in full confidence that God heard them. One early Christian, Tertullian (AD 155-220) wrote on the power of prayer.

Prayer is the spiritual offering that abolished the ancient [animal] sacrifices...Prayer put to flight the armies of the enemy...[It] turns aside the wrath of God, is concerned for its enemies, makes supplication for persecutors...Prayer alone conquers God...Prayer forgives sins, it drives back temptations, quenches persecutions, strengthens the weak-hearted...brings home the wayfarers, stills the waves, confounds the robbers, feeds the poor, rules the rich, lifts up the fallen, supports the unstable...Angels pray too. All of them [Treatise on Prayer].

Pray without ceasing (1 Thess. 5:17).

Thanks for Time Off. Last week we took a few vacation days to be with our new granddaughter, her siblings, and her parents. I am grateful to the elders for the time off as well as to Daniel Cauthen, Harold Cauthen, Harley Pope, and James Sellers for preaching and teaching.

REFLECTION..... Enables our minds to be stretched in three different directions—

The direction that leads to a proper relationship with God,

The relationship that leads to a healthy relationship with others,

And the relationship that leads to a deeper understanding of oneself.
