I LIKE CHRISTIAN CAMPING

- ★ Because above all else, for one week our young people are shaped, molded and changed by special time with Jesus.
- ★ Because during this week all outside influences and worldly pressures are lifted. Our kids are set free to seek Christ.
- ★ Because through this ministry, spiritual relationships are built and renewed that last even beyond this lifetime.
- ★ Because all involved are brought closer to God through daily study, prayer and worship. Because there is nothing quite like praising God at camp!
- ★ Because I am influenced in a very positive way by the hard and dedicated work of committed men and women who serve the kids throughout the week.
- ★ Because of the hugs, the tears of joy, the smiles, the laughs, the fellowship and the fun.
- ★ Because always, praise God, we get the opportunity to gather around the pool to witness a young person's life change forever as they clothe themselves in beautiful baptism.
- ★ Because in the shadows, when it is quiet, I can remember so many wonderful days gone by with the wonderful people that have touched my life through this ministry.
- ★ Because of the love lines! Over the years I've kept almost all of these sweet notes. Nothing like them!
- ★ Because of friendships made and maintained through a common love of Jesus and camping.
- ★ Because of how this week with Christ impacts the home, family and even the local church. Camp's positive spiritual nature goes far beyond camp boundaries.
- ★ Because Jesus told us to "gather the little children" near to Him (Mark 10:14) Spend just one week at camp and you will know why. They are indeed precious in His sight.

And finally because of letters like this:

"I wanted to write and tell you how much I have enjoyed this week. The theme, people, and atmosphere have encouraged me and rejuvenated my spirit. I love and appreciate all your efforts to make this week the best it could be."

Yep. I like Christian camping!!

Christian Camping

"Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you will say 'I have no delight in them.'" (Ecclesiastes 12:1)

I firmly believe that Christian camping is an effective tool in youth evangelism and encouragement. Here are some reasons that make camp worth the effort.

It is not just a camp in nature, even though that is an attractive and wonderful part of camp. It is directed by Christians where all personnel are faithfully involved in their congregations.

The purpose of our camp is to help young people develop physically, mentally, socially and spiritually (Lk 2:52).

All of the Bible teachers, counselors, and staff are faithful members of the church.

The Bible will be taught by devoted Christians each day. The campers will learn as much Bible during this week of camp, if not more, than they will in two or three months of Sunday school.

Wholesome recreation & entertainment are provided and encouraged. WE HAVE FUN!

Many of those who are not Christians will obey the gospel while at camp or soon after they return home.

Sending children of non-members to camp is a wonderful way to teach them the Bible. It is an effective evangelistic tool.

When young people are actively involved in youth activities 93% of them will be faithful adult Christians. Only 19% of kids NOT involved in the church youth group grow up to be faithful.

Eastern European Missions—

an anonymous donor will match every dollar sent to EEM the month of June to buy Bibles for children in Europe. You can donate online at <https://www.eem.org/> or mail to PO Box 55245, Hurst, TX 76054. For every Bible you sponsor, two Bibles will be sent.

"Why Have Camp?"

"For approximately 20 years of my adult life I've been involved as a Bible class teacher, counselor, and board member with Christian Youth camps

From those years of experience, I have come to the conclusion that there are few things that have the ability to positively impact our young people as much as Christian camp. Getting away from cell phones, computers, television, gaming systems, and all other distractions and spending a week focused on god, His Word, and Christian companionship is priceless. I personally don't know of any effort we undertake in our local congregations that equals the good that is accomplished through that week of Bible Camp.

Steve Higginbotham, minister, Karnes Church of Christ

"For many years _____ directed the week of camp that I attended. It was thrilling to be a part of the spiritual growth that occurred at camp. There is simply nothing like it. To this day I am good friends with a man who I met at camp. He later became a Christian, married a Christian lady, and they are rearing a wonderful Christian family. I can honestly say that I believe camp made an eternal difference in his life as well as mine."

Kyle Butt, Apologetics Press, Montgomery, Alabama

Reading these words helps you to appreciate why I am sold on camp and encourage all young folks to attend. There really is nothing like it. Thanks to the elders for their vision in seeing the value of camp and supporting this great work. Please pray for the success of our week at camp this coming week.
