What is God Like?

God has revealed Himself to man through nature (Psalm 19:1-6) and scripture (Psalm 19:6-14). He possesses qualities that are unique to Deity. No angel or man will ever have these qualities so we say they are incommunicable or metaphysical qualities. He also has moral qualities that are part of His personality. God greatly desires that we be like Him in our character. Because sin has defiled our being, God made a way that we can change and grow in our character. The book of Psalms describes God.

1. Metaphysical-Incommunicable

Omnipresence. He is everywhere.

Psalm 139:3-10, 23:5; 31:20; 114:7

Omnipotence—19:9-11. He is the Almighty whose powers are infinite.

Psa. 29:4, 59:11; 62:11; 65:6; 66:7, 106:8

Omniscience—He is all knowing. God's providence related to His knowledge

Ps. 33:13; 92:5, 103:14, 139:1; 147:5

Sovereignty—24:1ff. He has supreme authority to do what He wishes without asking anyone's permission.

Eternity—90:1-4; 104:31; 145:13. God is immortal and cannot die.

Immutability. He is unchanging.

Psalm 33:11, Psa. 119:89-91

2. Moral-Communicable

Goodness—33:5; 106:1ff

Patience—86:15; 103:8-10

Faithful—89:1ff

Grace—30:7; 147:11

Holiness—99:3,5,9

Love—63:3; 146:8

Truth—33:4; 117:2

Justice—72:1ff

Mercy—32:1ff; 85:2,3,10

Righteousness—24:5

Jealous—78:58; 79:5

Wrath—76:7

It is the Christian's responsibility to let others know what God is like (119:46; 145:4-7). Peter said that we are to declare God's excellencies to those living in spiritual darkness (1 Peter 2:9).

A friend loves at all times. Prov. 17:17

Finding It Hard to Accept

A college student in a philosophy class was taking his first examination. On the paper there was a single line which simply said: "Is this a question? —Discuss." After a short time he wrote: "If that is a question, then this is an answer." The student received an "A" on the exam.

God is often asked what we consider to be very hard questions. But nothing is too hard for the Lord. However, many of his answers are often very simple to understand but hard to accept.

God very plainly told Adam and Eve: Do not eat of the fruit of one tree in a whole garden of fruit trees. The first couple had plenty of food. They understood the explicit command. But they just didn't want to accept the rule. So they broke God's law; and, in the breaking of that rule, they ushered death and calamity into the world (Genesis 2-3).

God gives us His commands. When we break His New Testament directives, there is punishment soon to follow. Yet, we still do the sin despite the trouble it brings. We understand the commands, we just find it hard to accept those commands.

Jesus made it plain. He said: "If you love me, keep my commandments" (John 14:15).
