PRAYER AND CIVIL ORDER

Prayer changes us and others. It moves the Hand that governs the world. It impacts kings, dictators, and peasants. Like an irrigation ditch that can be diverted in any direction, the heart of a king or president in God's hand be changed. (Prov. 21:1).

When Nebuchadnezzar destroyed the Jewish nation in 586 BC and thousands of Jews were deported to Babylon, God told them:

"Seek the peace of the city (Babylon) where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray unto the LORD for it; for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace" (Jer. 29:7).

God told the Jews to pray for their Babylonian captors and He would hear their prayers and grant peace in the capital so they could enjoy a life of peace.

Later, when Persia overtook Babylon, the Persian king, Darius the Great (550-486 BC) ordered the Gentile governor of Palestine to use tax revenues for the rebuilding of the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. This was so that the Jews could offer sacrifices and could pray for Darius and his sons (Ezra 6:10). The Gentiles had learned that when devout Jews prayed, God heard their prayers.

This is identical to what Paul commanded Christians in 1 Timothy 2:1-2 to pray for the civil authorities so that Christians could enjoy a peaceful life of godliness.

What does prayer for civil authorities do? Daniel prayed for 21 days that God would restore the Jewish people in Palestine. A first wave of refugees had returned to Jerusalem (read Ezra 1-6) but politics stood in the way of their complete restoration. An angel told Daniel that the moment he began praying, God heard his prayer (Dan. 10:12).

Because the prince of Persia (an evil angel) opposed the godly angel's work during those 21 days, God sent Michael the archangel to assist him. It was only then that the godly angel remained with the kings of Persia to influence them to favor God's people (Dan. 10:13).

The angel then told Daniel that after he fought the prince of Persia, then he would need to fight the prince of Greece (Dan. 10:20).

There are good and evil angels who fight each other to influence governmental authorities. Since there was a prince of Persia and Greece, there are probably evil angels today over the USA, Russia, China, Ukraine, and every other nation. These evil forces fight for supremacy and are enemies of the kingdom of God. (Eph. 6:12).

In some way, the prayers of godly people enable godly angels to be more effective in their fight against Satan's kingdom. Thus, your prayers advance God's agenda to save lost men (Eph. 6:18-20; Col. 4:2-4).

So, pray without ceasing (1 Thess. 5:17).

Set your clocks ahead

Don't be late for Bible Class

Dickson County
JAIL CHAPLAINCY
Proclaiming Freedom for the Lord

I am proud to announce that during the month of February we had four inmates accept the Lord in baptism, additional 12 graduated from the Lee company trade program, 6 obtained their GED and 12 graduated from parenting class. All of this kept us busy in February.

The domestic violence, parenting, Journey to freedom, AA and Bible classes are still being taught on a regular basis.

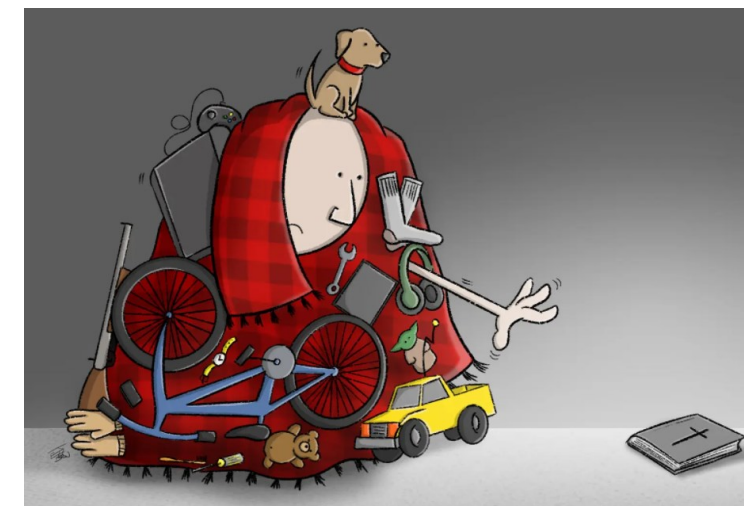

We are working hard to help our inmates from reoffending, by giving them the tools they need to get a job, find the Lord. Give them a path to remove themselves from the situations they were in, and give them hope for the future.

Giving God all the Glory, without Him we would be nothing.
Tom Todd

It's ok to enjoy things, but be cautious that they do not take away your time with God. Focusing on the wrong thing can distract us and keep us from doing God's will. A wise person should refuse to be distracted from the goal. Let your eyes look straight ahead; fix your gaze directly before you — Proverbs 4:25
