Words from Ethan ... UPLIFT

As many of you already know, we have started a social media project called Uplift. The purpose for this project is to provide an easy way for families to study the Bible together. I hope that this resource is helpful to you and your family. We will be beginning a new series this week titled "Worship that is Worth it." I look forward to studying with you about the God that we worship and why we worship Him.

Uplift videos are posted every Wednesday. You can find them on the church's website (www.whitebluffcoc.org), our YouTube page, and the Facebook group for White Bluff Church of Christ. Make sure to turn on your notifications! I hope this project will help each of us grow as individuals in our faith.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due

Civil authority was designed by God so that men could live together in peace. However, when evil men inflict violence upon the innocent through crime or warfare, God authorized those same authorities to inflict punishment upon the wicked (Romans 13:1-7).

The psalmist said that God has openly shown His righteousness to Gentile nations (Psalm 98:2). History thus is a record of God blessing or cursing all nations based on their obedience to righteous living.

Every nation therefore has the obligation through its laws, courts, and police or military forces to pursue peace through righteousness. Psalm 85:10 "Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other."

We should be grateful to those who have served law enforcement or military service. Because they risked their lives, they should be honored.

Veterans Day has been set aside by Congress as day to honor the men and women who served our nation honorably.

As Christians, we are eager to "show honor to whom honor is due" (Romans 12:7).

We appreciate those of our number that have served our country.

SOME THINGS TO THINK ON

Never neglect daily prayer. When you pray, remember that God is present, and that He hears you.

Never neglect daily private Bible reading. When you read, remember that God is speaking to you, and that you are to believe and act upon what He says.

If you are in doubt whether a thing is right or wrong, go to God and ask for help in making your decision the right one.

Never take your standard of Christianity from other Christians, or argue that because this or that person does something, you may. Ask yourself, "What would Christ do?" Strive to follow Him.

Never believe what you feel if it contradicts God's Word. Ask yourself; "Can what I feel be true if God's Word is true?" If both cannot be true, believe God, and make yourself the liar.

IF...

If you are impatient, sit down quietly and talk with Job.

If you are strongheaded, go and see Moses.

If you are getting weak-kneed, take a good look at Elijah.

If you are a get along, go along man, read the book of Daniel.

If there is no song in your heart, listen to David.

If you are getting sordid, spend a while with Isaiah.

If you are getting cold and heartless, get the beloved disciple John to put his arms around you.

If your faith is low, read the words of Paul.

If you are getting lazy, listen to James.

If you are losing sight of the future, climb up the stairs of revelation and get a glimpse of the promised land!

Christianity is not worth the snap of your finger if it does not straighten out your character.
