Words from Ethan..

I want to brag! The group of teenagers that we have deserve it! Over the past few months these teens packed hundreds of family day bags, thousands of food bags and have grown closer together through all of it. At Recharge (devotional) Sunday evening we had 18 teens attend. We ate together, participated in team building games, and had a devotional about the necessity of a community of inclusion and encouragement. This group has shown tremendous growth since Lauren and I got here and they are willing to continue their growth. These teens have tremendous potential to start a movement in this world for Christ. It encourages me to just to be a part of this process. WBYG has a great future ahead!

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING THANKFUL

A teenage girl had a flat while driving on the interstate. She was assisted by a Tennessee State Trooper who changed her tire.

Days later, the girl's mother mailed a thank-you note to the trooper.

Mental health professionals say that gratitude is the healthiest attitude men can cultivate. They also add that vengeance is the most destructive of all attitudes.

In its 300 years of existence, Yale University's most popular course is on how to be happy. More than 3.5 million people have taken the free, online course. One of the course requirements is to keep a "gratitude journal," where students document what others have done for them and how they are thankful (<https://www.cnn.com/2022/01/23/us/yale-happiness-course-pandemic-wellness/index.html>, published 23 Jan. 2022, retrieved 15 Nov. 2022).

The apostle Paul documents the spiritual decline of the Gentiles into godless unbelief. Even though they knew God, they refused to worship or express gratitude to Him (Romans 1:21). Their ingratitude had a devastating impact on their character development as it spiraled into degeneracy (Romans 1:24-32).

The apostle John documents how the angels, cherubs, and holy men express gratitude to God in heaven (Rev. 4:9; 5:12-13; 7:12; 11:17).

David frequently expressed gratitude to God in the Psalms. He wrote, "I will give thanks unto you, O Lord" (Psa. 18:49).

Every time you read about Jesus eating, He gave thanks (Matt. 14:19; 15:36; 26:27; Luke 24:30; John 6:11).

Paul said, "In everything give thanks" (1 Thess. 5:18).

To whom should you give thanks today?

Angel Tree

The Young Adult group will be organizing an Angel tree this year. If you or someone you know, knows any children who would benefit from this please add them by filling out the survey that is out by the sign up sheets. Deadline for adding a child will be November 30th and deadline for getting gifts to the church building for the angels will be December 14th. If you have any questions feel free to contact Breanna Chimera.

Thank You

The Richardson family is overwhelmed with gratitude for the phone calls, prayers, visits, support, cards and love shown to use by our church family in the death of my mom, Jean Richardson.

She loved coming to church until she was unable. Her Celebration of Life was beautiful. Thank you to those who came. She is with Jesus and loved ones she has lost. Her suffering is no more.

"What a Day of Rejoicing it Will be When We All See Jesus"

In Christian love and gratitude, Barbara Hunter and the family of Bobby Richardson.

The Cookie Bake will be a little different this year. We are asking the ladies to bake cookies at home and bring the cookies in tins to the building where they will be packed with candy and delivered to the shut-ins.

Please sign up on the sheet in the foyer if you would like to take part in the Cookie Bake. The deadline to turn in the cookie tins is Dec. 11. Contact Janet Osborne if you have questions.

Teacher's Meeting

The next teacher meeting will be November 20 at 4:15. We have samples of new Shaping Hearts class material for 2 year olds through 5th grade that we are considering and would like for teachers to review and decide if we want to use it.
