EVANGELISM: EACH ONE WINS ONE

To our members and visitors:

Welcome to White Bluff!
We are glad you are here!

Ah, Lord, I Cannot

Did your parents ever tell you to do something and you responded with, "Oh, but I can't" or maybe a teacher or a boss? Is that an acceptable response? What about when God tells us something?

The Lord came to Jeremiah to commission him as one of His prophets, and he responded to the Almighty God by saying, "Ah, Lord God! Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth" (Jer. 1:5,6). Question: Was that an acceptable way to respond to the commission of God?

How often does the Lord tell us to do something and we make "I cannot" excuses (Luke 9:57-62)? You see, Jeremiah didn't have any reason to not conform himself to the Lord's will, and neither do we! Read the Lord's response to Jeremiah and recognize that He says the same to us today,
"Do not say, "I am a youth, for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and whatever I command you, you shall speak" (1:7). Let's "go" to "all to whom" the Lord has sent us!

TRUNK OR TREAT

FRIDAY, OCT. 31ST

AT 6:00 PM

We plan to line cars up in the parking lot beginning at 5p.m. weather permitting. If it is raining, we will set up tables in the fellowship hall. Please sign up on the sheet in the foyer if you plan to participate. Candy or monetary donations for candy can be given to Wesley or Karmen Burns. This is a great outreach to our community. We hope everyone will participate.

Carry each other’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Gal. 6:2 NIV

Listening is a good and honoring gift, and one that we should give a great deal more than most of us do.

DONATE YOUR UNUSED BIBLES TO SOUTH AFRICA

Bibles are very expensive to those in South Africa. If you have new or gently used Bibles bring them to the table in the church upstairs foyer. They will be shipped and distributed by students a the Somerset School of Preaching in Cape Town, South Africa.

Keep On Inviting, Inviting, Inviting, and Inviting

The story is told of a young girl by the name of Becky who, each Sunday morning and Wednesday night, would go next door to invite her good friend Denise to church services. Becky’s question was simple: “Can Denise come to church services with us today?” Most of the time the answer was, “Yes,” and so the visits and invitations continued.

However, the day came when something was different. Becky made her Sunday morning journey next door, but the answer was, “No.” However, the words that followed were music to her ears: “No,” the father answered, “Denise will be going with me and her mother this morning — We will see you at worship, Miss Becky.”

The family visited, studies followed, and Denise’s mother and father were baptized into Christ! (Gal. 3:27 NKJV).

We might ask, “What is the magic, the mystery, the awe in this simple story?” The answer is, there is none! Just a sincere invitation given over and over and over again! Many times, we make things much too complicated and in doing so, achieve very little.

Some want sophisticated mail-outs to do the job of winning souls to Christ for us. Some believe that carefully designed programs will do it for us. Some want others to do it for us. Please understand this point: The benefits of mail-outs and other media avenues are wonderful when wisely used. But nothing dismisses our own personal responsibility to invite folks.

Who should we invite? Anyone we associate with on a daily basis — Our neighbor, postman, doctor, boss, banker, mechanic, coach, teacher, friend, relative, co-worker, and on and on we could go (cf. Matthew 22:9-10).

Remember the story about Jesus freeing the man who had legions of evil spirits? (Mark 5:1-20 – NKJV; Luke 8:26-39). He was grateful for Jesus’ compassion and wanted to go with Jesus (Mark 5:18). However, Jesus refused his request saying:

“Go home to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He has had compassion on you” (Mark 5:19).

Brethren, let’s go and do the exact same thing!

Mike Riley
