MATURITY

Maturity is the ability to control anger and settle differences without violence and destruction.

Maturity is patience. It is the willingness to pass up immediate pleasure in favor of long term gain.

Maturity is perseverance, the ability to sweat out a project or situation in spite of heavy opposition and discouraging setbacks.

Maturity is the capacity to face unpleasantness and frustration, discomfort and defeat, without complaint or collapse.

Maturity is humility. It is being big enough to say, "I was wrong." and when you're right you need not say "I told you so."

Maturity is the ability to make decision and follow through. The immature spend their lives exploring endless possibility and then do nothing.

Maturity means dependability, keeping one's word and coming through a in a crisis. The immature are masters of the alibi. They are conflicted and disorganized. Their lives are a maze of broken promises, former friends, unfinished efforts and good intentions that never materialize.

Based on the Serenity Prayer: Maturity is the art of living in peace with what we cannot change, the courage to change what we know should be changed...and the wisdom to know the difference.

Thank You

Thank you so very much. I appreciate the food that was prepared for the family with the passing of Tom Jackson. It Meant a lot to us and the ladies that were there that afternoon were wonderful.
Love, Jim & Kau Jackson.

Thank you for all your calls, cards, texts and all the meals you prepared for Roger and me. We never know when it will be our turn to need help. We love this congregation!!

What Kind of a Christian Are You?

Some are like wheelbarrows —require being pushed.

Some are a bit like canoes—need paddling.

Some are like kites—must have string on them to keep them from flying away.

Some are like kittens—more content when petted.

Some are like footballs-no one can tell which way they will bounce.

Some are like balloons –full of wind and ready to explode.

Some are like trailers-have to be pulled.

Some are like neon signs-keep going on and off.

Some are like a “dead” battery—no energy or power.

Some are like the weather—unstable and changeable.

Some are like the “hitchhiker”--willing to let you pay all the bills.

Some are like an iceberg—cold and dangerous,.

Some are like a candle under a bushel—useless.

Some are like salt mixed with sand--no saving power.

Some are like little children-no sense of responsibility.

Some are like falling leaves-carried away with the slightest wind...of doctrine.

Some are like the Rock of Gibraltar—firm, unmovable.

THE EMPTY PEW

The empty pew has an eloquent tongue. Though its message is unpleasant, it is one all may hear. To the preacher the empty pew says; “Your sermon is not worth while.” To the visitor it whispers: “You see, we are not quite holding our own.” To the treasurer it shouts; “Look out for a deficit.” To a stranger looking for a church home it suggests: “You had better wait a while.” To members who are present it asks: “Why don’t you go visiting next Sunday, too?”

The empty pew speaks against the services. It kills inspiration and smother's hope. It dulls the fine edge of zeal. The empty pew is a weight. The occupied pew is a wing. “Thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty” (1 Sam. 20:18).

New Christians

Tony Meadows asked to be restored to God and place membership. Tony is the brother of late Carl Meadows.

Mario and Kellie Santilli were baptized Tuesday night at the church building. They are friends of Ronald and Debbie Johnson and have been visiting with us for several weeks and after a Bible Study with Doug, they made their commitment to Christ.

We welcome both families to our congregation.

Our Ladies

Over 900 ladies attended the TRANSFORM LADIES CONFERENCE last weekend in Pigeon Forge. It was a wonderful weekend getaway to spend time fellowshiping and studying God's Word. If you are interested in going next year, mark your calendars for Sept. 8-10, 2023 contact the office and we will begin to make plans. (TLC will be the same weekend as Bible Bowl in Cookeville)

Our Youth

Congratulations to Kira Burns for being named the TSSAA All Tournament Player for 2022 in soccer. Class A, Region 5. District 9 from Harpeth High School. We are very proud of this sweet young lady.
