Psalms

The Hebrew title for the Psalms is “Songs of Praise.” One thing is for sure they contain a great storehouse of words or phrases of praise directed toward God. He is a God of steadfast love, of righteousness, justice, power, creation, lawgiver and many more.,

Psalms opens and closes with praise extolling God by using two Hebrew words for God. One is a word that refers to His steadfast love for His people. Our English translation says, “O Lord, our Lord.” We miss some of the power and beauty by not knowing the Hebrew words and their meaning.

Psalms 139 is also a powerful Psalm of praise. It tells of an all-seeing, all-present and all-powerful God. To add to the beauty is the fact that such an infinite being is also righteous.

Psalms 23 present the loving, caring, providing and protecting nature of God. We cannot imagine such a being who was wicked. We saw what a very powerful wicked being did to Job. How thankful we can be that God loves and cares for us. It is sad that many do not return love and appreciation to God. Too often we return sinful disobedience to Him and His Word that can and will save the obedient.

Psalms 119 is a most interesting Psalm. There are 176 verses in this Psalm and every verse except maybe one gives praise to God's word. He uses a number of different words referring to God's word such as commandments, law, statutes, testimonies and so on. The Psalmist says of God's word or law that he loves it, it is a lamp to his feet and light to his pathway, he hides it in his heart that he might not sin against God, it is sweeter than honey and more valuable to Him than silver or gold to name a few.

Every verse begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet. Since there are only twenty two letters in the alphabet, He divides the psalm into twenty-two groups of eight verses, so the first eight verse begin with their “A” the next eight with their “B” and so on. At least on benefit of this is for memorization purposes. It probably helped locate a particular “verse” or expression in the psalm. At the time of writing, verses were unknown as we have them.

Thank You

To each person here at the White Bluff Church of Christ who gave, showered, & offered in so many ways during the sudden trying time of the nine weeks from the cancer diagnosis to the passing of Chasity Hall, our family wants you to know how much we appreciate everything that was done for her. She loved worshipping here and she loved the people. She was ready to go see Jesus and her Papa. May God bless each of you and please know we felt the prayers.

A Proverb to Ponder

Now, not all our attenders are members, and not all our members are attenders, but if all our attenders were members, and all our members were attenders...

Then...we'd have more trouble menders, more gospel defenders and more soul winners!

But...we'd have fewer people offenders, fewer spiritual hinderers and fewer religious pretenders!

So... let us all render a more tender surrender to the Commender of a love full of splendor! As we meander on this earth full of sinners, let us engender a life with the Lord at the center.

"Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us. And let us run with endurance the race that is set before us" (Hebrews 12:1).

Have You Stumbled?

Stumbling is considered a bad omen in many countries. When Napoleon's horse stumble as he led his army to attack Russia in 1812, many of the French soldiers thought they should immediately turn back. Napoleon continued to advance, but it turned out his soldiers were right. When it come to faith, stumbling is more than a bad omen. It is a cause for missing out on the blessings God gives us.

Don't Stumble (2 Peter 1:10,11)!
