WHAT TO DO WHEN TIMES ARE BAD

Paul's letter to the church in Philippi has helped me on numerous occasions. It can help you too, when circumstances in your life are not what you would like them to be. Let me give you an example from chapter 4. Heres some advice from Paul.

"Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say rejoice!" (v. 4). When distressed, we can find joy "in" the Lord. When you're on the down side of life, you're looking at defeat. But when you contemplate Jesus, all you can see is victory! We like to celebrate victories.

"Let your forbearing spirit be known to all men. The Lord is near." (v. 5). Paul did not say "let everybody see how downcast you are." Rather, he wants us to behave in such a way that everyone can see we are bearing up under the burdens of life. We don't let life get us down. Why? We recognize that this life is soon over and our Lord will soon return to take us home (see 3:20-21). That lifts my spirits!

"Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made know to God." (v. 6). Do you catch yourself worrying about little things? If so, then I can tell you from experience that you're behind in your praying. Prayer puts things in proper perspective. Prayer places our trust in a loving Father who wants to handle our worries about life (see Matt. 6:24-34; 1 Pet. 5:6-7).

Here then, are three things you can do when you feel a "downer" coming on. Too tough for you? Did I fail to mention that Paul also said, "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me" (Phil. 4:13).

Thank You

There are no words to express our love and appreciation for your support during the short battle we had with Chasity's cancer and all the prayers, cards, gifts, visits, calls and donations. When she started to attend White Bluff services, she said she felt "at home" and loved the congregation. We are forever grateful to everyone. Much Love, the family of Chasity Hall

To our brothers and sisters here at White Bluff, Brenda and I wish to thank you for your prayers, phone calls, and words of support you gave to us when she had her heart procedure. The procedure went very well, due to your prayers.

With the love of Christ, Buddy & Brenda Driver

New Baby

Congratulations to Mike and Susan Jones on the birth of another granddaughter,

Isabel Rose Jones.

Isabel was born Tuesday morning, Sept. 13 to Daniel and Jessica Jones. Joan Jones is the proud Great Grandmother.

Baptism

Bryson Harding, grandson of Becky Clark and great-grandson of Bernice Stokes was baptized last week by Keith Harding. We rejoice with this family.
