Will They Know We Are Christians?

Whenever we would have a hymn sing in church, whether asking for favorite hymns on a Wednesday evening or in summer worship in the sanctuary, I knew I could always count on someone to request “They’ll Know We Are Christians By Our Love” (#2223 in The Faith We Sing). I used to think of this song as a campfire song from my youth. Now, I wonder if it isn’t more aspirational in it’s message.

WILL THEY KNOW that we are Christians by our love? Are our lives so identified by the Love of God that others see in us something different? Something special? Something they long for in their lives?

In February we are going to be focusing our worship and messages on the theme of relationships. In this month where the world so casually talks about love, we are going to look at what the Word of God has to say about our relationships, and how we are to live. I hope you will join us each Sunday, online or in person as together we explore our most important relationships in a series called, “It’s Complicated.”

For now, I would remind you of some of God’s Words that I have found to be a guiding light in my life these past few years. You know where I am going, don’t you? These have to sound familiar by now.

LOVE GOD – In the 12th chapter of Mark we read, ²⁹ Jesus replied, “The most important commandment is this: ‘Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD. ³⁰ And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.’ Of course, this is simply Jesus reminding us of what was written in Deuteronomy 6:4-5. We are to first Love God. How? With ALL our heart, ALL our soul, ALL our mind and ALL our strength. Sounds pretty clear to me, albeit demanding. God loves us eternally. His steadfast love endures forever. But God has not lowered the bar for us in any way. Love. God. Completely. Once we do that, then we can...

LOVE ONE ANOTHER – Specifically, I would remind each of us of the words of Jesus, who said (John 13:33-34), ³³ Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer... ³⁴ So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other.

Can you believe that?! Not only are we to love God completely, but Jesus said we must love each other! No exceptions. No exception because someone disagrees with me, or gets on my nerves, or doesn’t look like me, or vote like me, or think like me. No exceptions. Love one another. And what happens when we do as Jesus said? ³⁵ Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR – Love God? Check. Love one another? Check. But, seriously? Did Jesus really say we are to love our neighbors? - Love those people? Yes, he did. Again, let’s go back to God’s Word, Mark 12 (also Lev. 19:18), where we read, ³¹ The second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ No other commandment is greater than these.”

It really is all about love. Maybe the Beatles were on to something when they sang, “Love, love, love – love is all you need.” Or, more importantly, we will stick with the Word of God here, as we read again from Deuteronomy 6, ⁶ And you must commit yourselves wholeheartedly to these commands that I am giving you today.

Love God. Love One Another. Love our Neighbors. Love, and live. Not just in February, but always, and forever. Amen.

Loved by God, I remain,

Pastor Jeff

The Prayers of the People – Becoming Involved

“Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Prayer is a word that describes a relationship. Prayer opens us to the divine dialogue through intentional encounter with the Trinity. In his book The Way of the Heart, Henri Nouwen quotes Theophan the Recluse: “To pray is to descend with the mind into the heart, and there stand before the face of the Lord, ever-present, all seeing, within you.” Prayer is sustained less by duty than by a desire to connect and grow in intimacy and communion with the holy Three. But prayer also moves us up and out into our world. In Love in A Fearful Land, Nouwen also writes, “Prayer is the way to both the heart of God and the heart of the world—precisely because they have been joined through the suffering of Jesus Christ...Praying is letting one’s own heart become the place where the tears of God’s children merge and become tears of hope.” (excerpt from page 231 - Spiritual Disciplines Handbook by Adele Ahlberg Calhoun)

On January 23, Pastor Chris preached on the fourth mark of a disciple: “A Disciple Prays Constantly”. And you saw the prayers of God’s people on the altar, the thousands of prayers prayed over by those who have felt a calling to do so. If you have that desire, if you want to be part of something bigger than yourself, if you feel God calling you to get involved, contact Pastor Lisa to learn more about the prayer team and how you can become part of such an exciting ministry.

Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.” -James 5:16

I Am A Stephen Minister

Life is not easy; we all have our ups and downs. My own experiences have made me more aware of the peace obtained when overcoming obstacles. Also, how much easier it is if you don’t have to walk through those hard times alone. All are opportunities to grow in faith, but must be recognized as such.

As a Stephen Minister, I desire to comfort others. I can’t change someone’s past, but I can be there now to care. I can’t give you solutions to life’s problems, doubts and fears, but I can listen while you search for answers. Your decisions are your own, but I can support and encourage you. I can’t keep your heart from breaking, but I can cry with you while you pick up the pieces.

Together we can find the peace that comes when the physical and emotional pain is replaced with hope to sustain you. -Barbara Slegel

Safe Haven Lighthouse

As we begin a new year here at Safe Haven, we are looking forward to the Wednesdays that we are able to spend together.

We had a movie day for our Christmas party, and it was extremely rewarding to hear the kids asking us "When is Bible lesson." We are very glad that they look forward to the Bible readings and the lessons that we have planned for them. It is uplifting to hear them answer the questions and to hear their thoughts on what the Bible is telling us.

Our first field trip of the year was to The Works. The kids each received a Game Card as their Christmas gift from our ministry. We had a fun time watching them play the games and help each other out to try and win prizes. We are very blessed to be a part of this wonderful ministry.

Peace,
Lori Madara and Bonnie Rissmiller

No Shave November Update

We were thrilled to raise and gift $5,700 through our No Shave November campaign. Not surprisingly, this congregation's generosity just keeps going and going. As of the end of 2021 you have added an additional $800 to that total. That means that a total of $3,250 was gifted to advance community health initiatives in the Democratic Republic of the Congo AND another $3,250 was donated to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital to help fund pediatric cancer research in honor of Charlotte Roland. Thank you for your generous hearts!

The next Wilson Area Food Pantry distribution will be on February 18th from 2:00-4:30PM in the WLUMC Community Center. Pre-registration is preferred and can be scheduled by calling 484-525-0980.

We are currently looking for donations of canned and dry goods. Items needed include cereal, peanut butter, jelly, macaroni & cheese, canned meat and canned pasta meals.

The Food Pantry is held on the third Friday of each month with setup the Thursday before. Please contact Nancy Poole at 610-678-5537 if you would like to help with Thursday set up from 2-4 PM or Friday Pantry from 2-5PM.

Women's Book Club will meet Wednesday, February 9, at 7:00PM in room 109 of the Education building to discuss Then She Was Gone by Lisa Jewel. March's book will be The Wednesday Letters by Jason Wright. New readers always welcome! Come join the discussion! To be added to the email list or for information please contact Donna Barnhart at dmbhart2@gmail.com or 610-678-7873.

Church Vehicles Overflowing

— by Pastor Chris

We had an idea in late November that it would be great to collect food for our friends at New Journey Community Outreach. What initially began as a project for our children's ministry and adult small groups, soon transformed into a church-wide Advent campaign and, ultimately, the "Reverse Advent Calendar" was born. More than 150 households participated in collecting non-perishable foods – a different item each day during the month of December – and brought them to church on Christmas Eve. Midway through the services, the bus was already filled... and then the van was filled... and then, by the end of the night, your generous donations filled our bus, van, and pickup truck! It was amazing to see your abundant kindness in a tangible way as we offered food to our fellow brothers and sisters. Thank you for responding so generously this Christmas.

*"Feed the hungry, and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon."
-Isaiah 58:10*

FIREHOUSE YOUTH MINISTRY

The youth have been on and off for a couple of months. Between snow cancellations, and rescheduling due to the pandemic, we've been trying to make the best of our times together.

We have begun meeting regularly on Wednesday nights, now that the Firehouse Café renovation is finished. It's a perfect place for all of us to share a meal, play some games, and have some deeper faith discussions.

During our time in Youth Group on Sunday evenings we have talked about God the Creator, and ways we can be good stewards of the Earth. We will be thinking about ways we can do better right here at West Lawn UMC. -Trisha

Souper Bowl of Caring February 6th

The Youth have continued to keep their hearts focused outward and come February, we will be continuing our tradition of collecting canned goods and non-perishable items for the Wilson Food Pantry.

Even though COVID has been affecting our lives for 22 months now, there's always a need for people who experience food insecurity. Last year, due to Sunday morning snow, we didn't collect much, so this year we are excited to have a much bigger collection. Save up those cans and bring them in on February 6th as we take time to help feed the hungry.

This is a date change from previous newsletters, so please mark the date, and we will see you with Soup Bowls on the 6th!

Confirmation Class 2022

Confirmation classes are starting to learn some of the basics of the Methodist faith, including communion, baptism, and understanding various forms of worship.

Students will be participating in an offsite weekend retreat with other EPA UMC groups later this winter, and we can't wait for some normalcy.

Please continue to pray for these 15 students, their mentors and the teachers through the coming months.

Ah, February by Mike Reinert

Ah, February,
You are so dreary,
Your sunlight is weak,
The landscape is bleak,
Cold and wet, we sigh.

Ah, February,
Weather contrary,
Bare trees in the park
Are a contrast stark
With the pastel sky.

Ah, February,
Why do you tarry?
Your days number least
Yet we wish them ceased
So Spring may come by.

Ah, February,
Forgive our worry,
Your snow from afar
And children's smiles are
Gifts from God on high!

Tools for Ministry Set for March 5th on Zoom

It's time to open the proverbial tool box again to help build and repair church ministries—to fix what's broken and improve what's working. That requires leadership development and training more than anything else.

So the Eastern PA Conference will sponsor its 2022 Tools for Ministry on Saturday, March 5, 9 AM to 12:30 PM. Classes will be offered virtually on Zoom once again, out of an abundance of caution during the still-surging COVID pandemic.

Tools for Ministry is a half-day academy offering two sessions of diverse, dynamic learning for leaders. And it's open to all laity and clergy. Skilled instructors will provide valuable information, wise insights and helpful resources. And some classes will be recorded and made available later to be viewed again or for the first time by those who want to learn more.

Thank You...

We delivered another 370 bags for the Power Pack program. I am very thankful to your congregation for their kindness and willingness to donate to our project. I received all your donations in the past week and am very grateful. We are now good till the beginning of February, 2022.
David Babczak ,
Power Pack Program Coordinator

A sincere thank you to all of the administrative staff and volunteers who pulled together to help make our Christmas Eve services come together seamlessly, from the worship participants to the greeters and ushers to those to who tidied up after each service and everyone in-between. I appreciate all of your efforts—you made my job so much easier and my first Christmas in this position a joy.
Thank you again, everyone!
