A note from the pastor

Happy Holidays to all!

For many of us the holiday season is over; it ended as the New Year began. We have celebrated, and I hope enjoyed, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and the New Year's Eve Party.

But for the Christian community the holiday season is far from over. January and even February continue to bring us times to celebrate: January 6th, Epiphany of the Lord, January 8th, Baptism of the Lord, February 19th, Transfiguration Sunday.

Our secular culture ignores these events - so does the church.

Epiphany is the time to take down our Christmas decorations at home and at church. Putting the ornaments, and the tree away for another year.

But this is not what the Bible tells us; Epiphany is the story of Magi coming to worship the child Jesus. The Bible translates the Greek word "magi" as wise men. Were these men kings, court magicians, astrologers, or astronomers? The Bible does not really say.

Were there three of them? Magi is plural, but three "gifts" does not mean three persons.

Where did they come from; when did they come? What about that star?

Given all the things that the Bible does not say about the magi, what does the Bible tell us?

God will go to extraordinary means to draw all to His Son Jesus. We can rejoice in this story for it means that God intends His salvation for all people, not a select few. God used a special light in the sky as a unique invitation to those mysterious magi. Today, He still draws people to Himself. When God's word has its way with us, when there is no rationalizing away its true meaning, then the Holy Spirit uses it to draw us to Jesus. When the Word of God works in us according to its truth and purity, the Holy Spirit will use it to build faith in us and give us three gifts: forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation.

Happy Holidays!

Pastor Terry

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of you from Safe Haven Lighthouse!

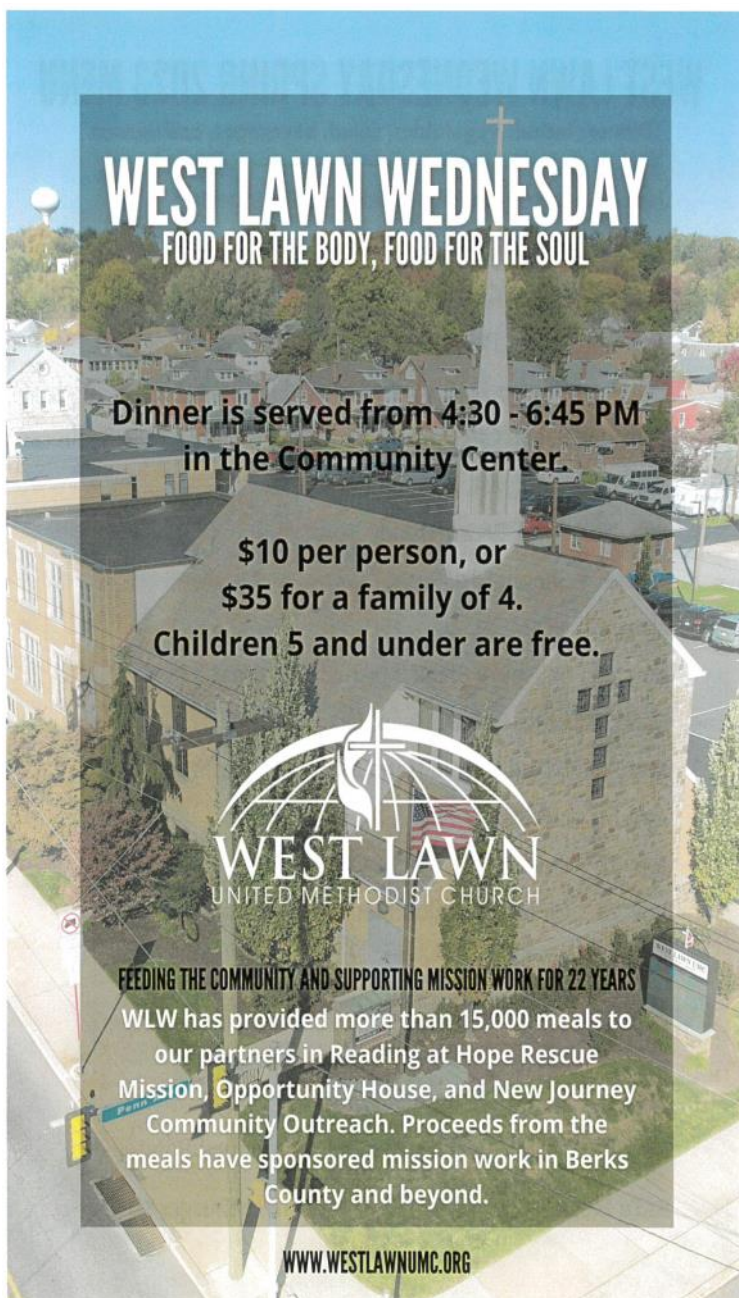

This past November our lessons were about Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Joseph. Miss Ruth used songs to reinforce the Bible lesson. The kids especially enjoyed the song, Father Abraham. It is encouraging when the kids remember the lessons and can talk about what they have learned from the Bible lessons. Snack time is a welcomed part of our day. We enjoyed decorating donut holes with fall decorations. They looked beautiful and tasted even better.

After a two-year hiatus, the kids once again decorated buckets for our Caring Community members. After the buckets were decorated the kids filled them with personal care products. They also made a card to go in each one of the buckets. This is a service project that we share in with the United Women in Faith from our church. The buckets were used during the Thanksgiving Eve service led by the UWF. It is a project we have been doing for approximately 8 years. Volunteers then delivered the buckets to the homebound members of our church. As one of the deliverers, it was incredibly special to me to see the look of surprise and happiness on the recipient's face. I was very blessed.

During November, Jeannie Hetrich introduced the kids to making music with bells. Miss Ruth played the piano and Jeannie led the notes for the kids to ring. They were wonderful! For not having played together, most of them having not rang a bell before, they sounded terrific! December has started off as a busy month for us. The first week the kids made several different crafts to decorate their homes for the Christmas season. They decorated candy houses that were generously donated by Angel Tree, along with the goodies to decorate. They decorated small trees and made a snowman out of beads. They also strung beads with assorted colors and with the words "Peace" and "Joy" on them. This is a reminder of the Joy that only God can bring into our lives. And we pray for the Peace that only He can provide.

Safe Haven Lighthouse is extremely blessed to again receive a grant from the Eastern Conference of the United Women in Faith for 2023. We do not charge anything to the parents for our program and this is possible because of their support and generosity. They truly are making a positive difference in our community. We would also like to acknowledge our volunteers. Without these wonderful people, our program would not exist. Bonnie Rissmiller, Barbara Coots, Laura Trewella, Carolyn Weller, Ruth Shaffer, Jeannie Hetrich, Frank Paull (bus driver) and Warren Marweg (bus driver). And the office staff; Kathy, Diane and Sally, who do so many tasks for our ministry. Blessings to all of our church family and, as always, we appreciate your continued prayers for our ministry. Shalom, Lori Madara and Bonnie Rossmiller

11:00 Table Talk

For those of us that enjoy the 9:30 AM Contemporary Service, currently there is no Sunday School option for us. If you want to grow your spiritual self, it helps to have more than just an hour on a Sunday morning. We spend hours watching sporting events on TV or movies, but we don't put much time into growing our knowledge of God which is way more important than anything else we could be doing.

If you are looking for more spiritual stimulation on a Sunday morning, consider joining us for 11:00 AM Table Talk! We typically show a video or a series of videos and afterward, we have a discussion. The class lasts one hour and everyone is welcome to participate.

So grab your coffee and donut holes and join us in Room 109 of the Reiner Education Bldg. every Sunday morning at 11:00 AM.

Workshop Leader: Ryan Daniels, a licensed financial advisor and owner of RFinances. He attends West Lawn United Methodist Church with his wife, Steph Daniels and his three daughters (Emily, Lyla and Maggie). As a U.S. Army Veteran, Ryan and his team continue to serve by partnering with organizations to host workshops to teach people the basics of money. They also provide one-on-one financial coaching to help people build a simple to follow financial plan that fits their life. Ryan is the author of Money Basics and Fundamentals (Build A Plan That Fits Your Life!), and a contributor to the Reading Eagle newspaper and host of the "Say Hi to Money" podcast.

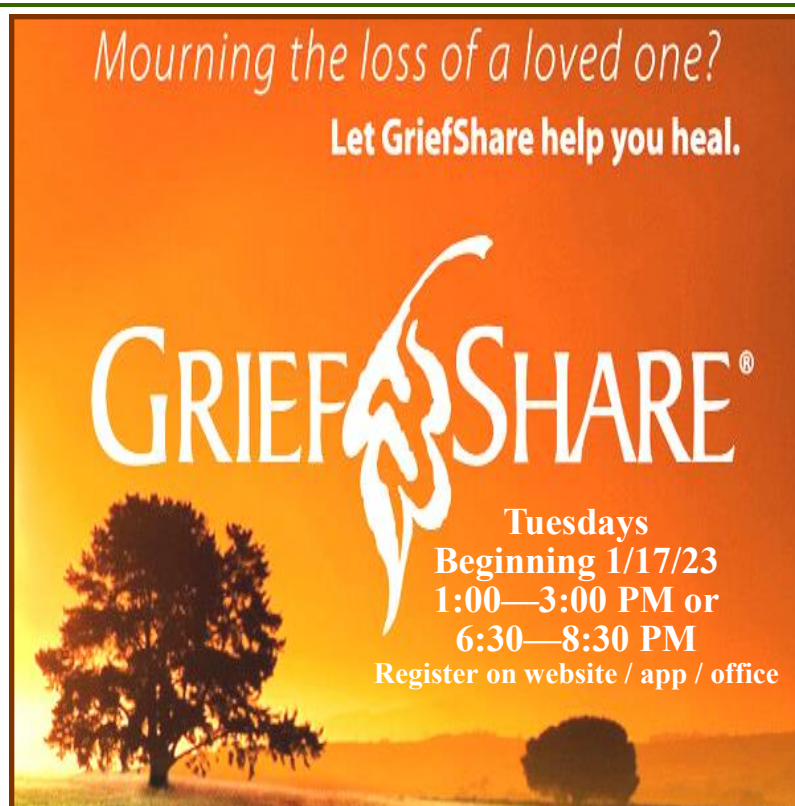

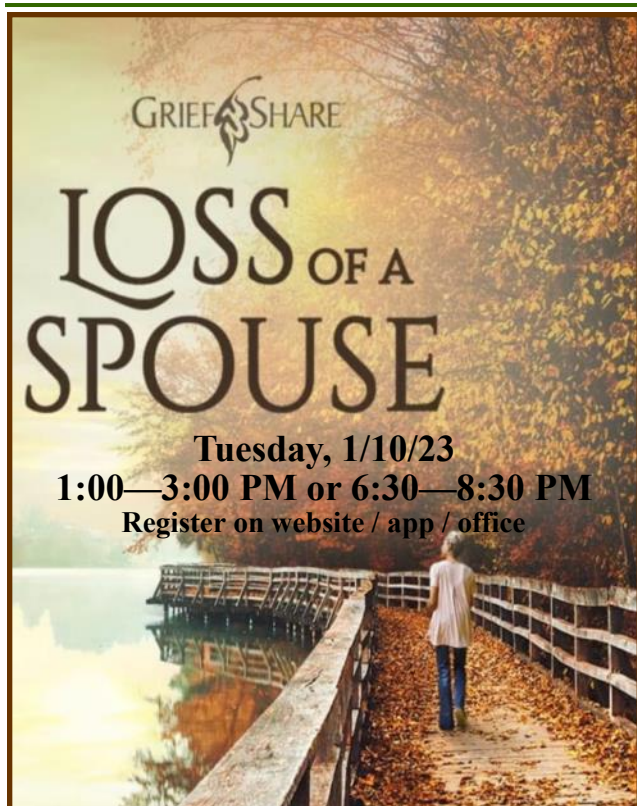

Overview of Workshops: All workshops include instruction by a licensed financial advisor, workbook and Q&A session. All attendees may schedule a FREE 1-on-1 financial coaching session with an advisor at the conclusion of the workshop series.

Part 1: Unlock Your Financial Blocks - Much of our success (or struggles) with money is determined by what we THINK about money. In Unlock Your Financial Blocks people will discover what is contributing to overspending and holding them back from new financial milestones.

Part 2: Build A Plan That Fits Your Life - As life changes, your plan needs to change. In this workshop, people learn the 5 key pieces of a strong financial plan. They evaluate their current plan and learn how to take simple steps to take control and have confidence with money.

Part 3: Work Your Budget - Budgeting can be a buzz-word, but it's important. The difference between this workshop and many other budgeting programs is that it's simple to DO (key word). Everyone is different so your budget is going to be different. Learn how to choose a method and how to get started today!

Part 4: Invest in Your Future - Investing is NOT complicated despite what some might lead you to believe. In this workshop people learn about the three D's, common investment types, and how to begin investing in their future. Close to retirement? No problem, learn how to go from investing to build, to investing to live.

Faithful and Inclusive Discussion Group

In response to recent challenges facing by the governing body of the United Methodist Church regarding the church's position on homosexuality, in September, 2022, our congregation chose to reaffirm our belief that every person by grace is included in the family of God and welcome to worship here.

There are perhaps additional questions to consider...

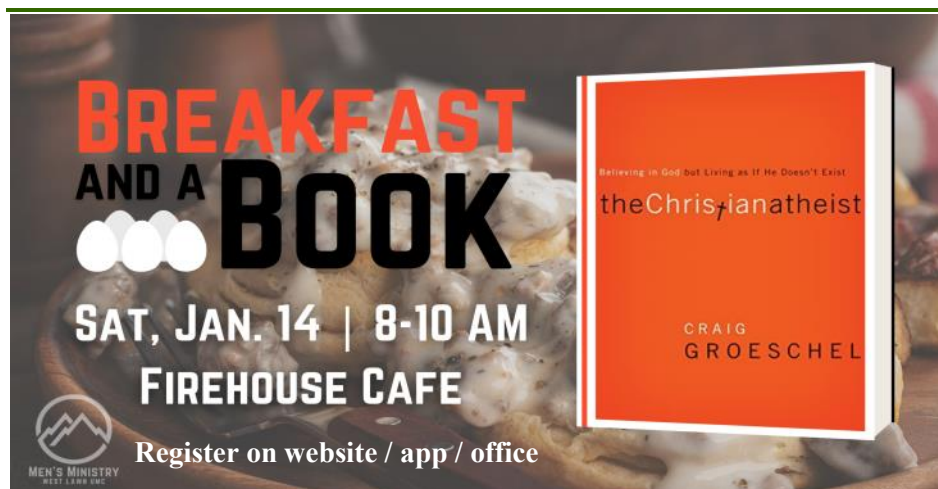

- What does the Bible say about homosexuality?
- How do we engage in a dialog that doesn't alienate or offend people?

If you desire to explore these issues further, join Pastor Rob Fuquay and our small group for a six-part study looking at how the church can remain faithful to the Bible while including all people in its ministry.

Hope to see you beginning Friday night, January 6th at 7:00 pm at the following ZOOM link:

January 2023

The past year has been full of laughs and learning! We've spent weekends away at Pocono Plateau and Gretna Glen. We rode rollercoasters, ate pizza at the Pagoda and hiked waterfalls. We built a roof in the rain, dug holes in the mud (and re-dug them in the right place), raked thousands of leaves, made hundreds of sandwiches and served a grocery food line in Reading. 2022 was a year of active learning, and we are excited for what this next year will bring.

MLK Day Overnight of Service

This January we are trying something new and joining with a UMC event for an overnight of fun and service. We will be doing Laser tag, playing games in the gym, & an escape room all, while doing a large group grocery run, painting at a shelter in Chester PA, and reorganizing a food pantry.

Confirmation Class 2023

The class of 13 students has started to really form a good bond. We've learned about our faith roots (Judaism & Catholicism) and begun to figure out what it means to be a Christian, specifically a Methodist. We will spend time in January learning about the creeds, communion, serving, & our own spiritual gifts.

SAVE THE DATE: July 9-15, 2023!

For the second year in a row, our church will head to the Appalachia Mountains to make homes "warmer, safer, and drier" with ASP (Appalachia Service Project). This will be an intergenerational mission trip led by Pastor Chris and Trisha Rabold, our Youth Director. All skill levels and anyone that has completed 6th grade or older is welcome and encouraged to give a week of service.

An informational meeting for Q&A will occur on Sunday, January 22 at 5:00 pm in the Firehouse Café.

Commitments, which include a financial down payment, are required by March 1, 2023.

United Women in Faith have developed as a community and expanded their concepts of mission in many ways throughout 2022:

- Purchasing Bibles for the children attending the Angel Tree party
- Providing supplies for the Christmas buckets for shut-ins prepared by the Safe Haven after-school program
- Two deliveries of personal care/hygiene supplies to Berks Connection/Pre-Trial Services
- Four lap robes and a prayer shawl to Phoebe Berks Health Care
- Seventeen small quilts to Mary's Shelter
- Learning about Ukraine from a short-term student; hearing about the West Virginia Mission trip; experiencing how music enhances worship were also part of our gatherings in 2022.

United Women
in Faith

Using Luke 13 as a Scriptural base helped us find a mission in the larger faith community. Our mission offerings beyond this community impacts the message of the Gospel far beyond our individual efforts.

We will not meet in January, 2023 but will gather again in February. Anyone interested is welcome to join us on the third Tuesday at 11:30 am in He-Brews Café.
