

41st Annual CROP Hunger Walk Sunday, October 9th @ Grings Mill

This year we are planning to gather at Gring's Mill again for our annual CROP Hunger Walk! We would love to see everyone gathered together in one place, but we understand that Covid is still an issue and so, we will also continue the VIRTUAL CROP Hunger Walk option again this year.

Register to participate at the registration table in the breezeway between services on select upcoming Sundays*, online at www.crophungerwalk.org/ReadingPA or between 12:30-2:00 pm on the day of the walk.

Can't walk? Support our church walkers by donating to the West Lawn Team.

On the day of the Walk:

- Come join us at Gring's Mill! We will begin walking whenever our team is ready.
- OR, walk at your own time and place.

Registration tables will be set-up in the breezeway between services Sep 25, Oct 2 & Oct 9*

Time to Share Christmas Messages with Inmates Again

Imagine what it would be like to be behind bars this Christmas, with limited contact with family and friends. Receiving a card with an encouraging note that shares the message of God's love from someone "outside" would be such a meaningful gift!

The Eastern PA Conference Prison Ministry and Restorative Justice Team (PMRJ) will launch this year's Christmas Cards for Inmates Ministry effort hoping to build on its pandemic-forced, scaled-down effort last year. Last year, the team provided over 4,000 signed cards to correctional facilities for their inmates and staff, crediting that success to supportive congregations and determined team members who picked up and dropped off bagged cards at cooperating churches. The team will use the same system this year, relying on six participating churches.

WLUMC will again participate in this program which we hope to begin in October. Simply pick up your packet of 5 cards and follow the included instructions. Please make sure you return your cards in the box at the Welcome Center in the narthex, or return them to the church office by the deadline on the instruction card. We will need 900 cards to cover the Berks County Prison, and West Lawn members have come through every year !!

Watch for updates on this program and when to pick up your cards.

"In essentials unity, in non-essentials liberty, in all things charity." -John Wesley

John Wesley taught that Christianity was essentially about love for God and neighbor, growing through the means of grace, and staying connected even when we “agree to disagree.” His religious offspring, Methodism, is squarely traditional Christian practice; we believe in the virgin birth, the resurrection, the humanity and divinity of Christ, the Trinity and other things addressed in orthodoxy. As Methodists we hold the Bible in high authority under the lordship of Jesus Christ. Scripture was inspired by the Holy Spirit, written by human hands, and codified by holy councils. God is in all of it. Wesley did not teach scriptural inerrancy and infallibility – he taught the importance of interpreting it faithfully through tradition, reason, and experience. Our Articles of Religion state the Bible contains everything necessary for salvation.

We faithful Methodists like to say we read the Bible through the lens of Christ, who fulfills the law and (as our Associate Pastor argues) makes the Pharisees mad. To make sense out of the scriptures we read it through the person of Christ who loved every broken person he came across. The only people Jesus scorned were the Pharisees who had lost sight of love because of religious rules based on their stiff interpretation of scripture. The Bible claims God is love, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God (1 John 4:7). Therefore we believe it and seek to live it by following Jesus.

Our denomination, the people of The United Methodist Church, agree on all these essential core beliefs. But we are likely the most evenly widespread denomination in the United States – we have a longstanding tradition of diversity of thought which bears varied opinions on many cultural issues. These issues have troubled our longing for unity, primarily, the issue of human sexuality but there are others. The divisive nature of the issue has affected our conferences, our churches, and our clergy.

Some of you have asked how the issue affects me. Here is what I want you to know. I made a promise at ordination to be faithful to The United Methodist Church and uphold its discipline. I have done so, and I plan to continue. I follow The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church which insists that all people may participate fully in the ministries, sacraments, and programs of the church. I would not officiate a same gender wedding, but I am steadfast about inclusiveness. It is the way of Jesus, and it is included in the vows I took. There is no plan in the denomination that compels pastors to perform duties they are not comfortable performing, telling churches they have to do something inappropriate for their context, or constrains conferences from setting standards for ministry. I respect that some will leave The United Methodist Church because of their convictions, but I will remain because of mine.

Like me, the members of our church have also taken vows to be loyal to The United Methodist Church and support it. We are the body of Christ. I don't have all the answers, but our divided culture needs a witness to love that transcends our differences, not giving in to the polarization of our times. The United Methodist Church is not perfect, but it is home, and we find purpose here that transforms our broken world.

Faithfully,

Pastor Tom

A FUN & SAFE HALLOWEEN EVENT FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES!

Safe Haven Lighthouse

We are back together again, and we are having a great time! We are pleased to have a lot of returning children this year. We also appreciate all the retuning volunteers. Without our team, we wouldn't be able to serve so many children.

We continue to use the Bible Studies for Life series. The kids enjoy listening to the stories of Jesus and the activities that go along with the lessons. We are also continuing with learning the Books of the Bible. Since it is still nice weather, we have been using the Gaga Ball Pit. It's a great outlet for the kids to use their energy before we come back inside. If you're around church at that time, you'll hear us. You'll also hear, "Just one more game!"

We are looking forward to our time together and we'll let you know about our next adventure.

Peace,

Lori Madara and Bonnie Rissmiller

You're Welcome Here

Here at our church we extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, gay, straight, filthy rich, comfortable, dirt poor, have lived here for decades, just moved in, or are passing on through. Whatever your background, nationality, or skin color, we don't care, you're welcome here.

We extend a special welcome to those that are newly married, never married, married again, or married for longer than they can even remember... or choose to remember. We welcome families of all shapes and sizes, those with one child that is as quiet as a mouse, those with a whole basketball team, and parents with crying new-born babies.

You're welcome here if you can sing like John Coakley or Pat Kenna or if you can't carry a note in a bucket. You're welcome here if you're 'just browsing,' just woke up or just got out of prison. Those that serve in our military or work in our community as first responders, you're welcome here, too. We don't care if you're more Christian than the Bishop or if you haven't been in church since your little nephew's baptism.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome yoga moms, football dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters, and food connoisseurs.

We welcome those who are in recovery or are still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems or you're down in the dumps. We welcome you even if you don't like 'organized religion' or you call yourself 'spiritual.'

If you blew all your money on the horses or the scratch-offs, you're welcome here, too. We offer a welcome to those who work too hard, don't work at all, can't spell, or come just because grandma is in town, and she made you go to church.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, those that had religion shoved down their throat as a kid, or got lost on Penn Ave and wound up here by mistake.

We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts, and all those at different locations on their own journey of faith.

Progressives, traditionalists, compatibilists, non-compatibilists... come on in, we welcome you, too. There's more than enough room in my Father's house.

You're Welcome Here

Everyone has a story to tell

Why Stephen Ministry??

A question for which I don't know if I have an answer. In 2002, I retired from my job. I was a member at West Lawn and serving on a few committees, but not overly involved and suddenly had too much time on my hands. I kept looking at things available at church and praying, but didn't feel nudged to any of them. Then in 2003, Pastor Sherry started talking about a program called Stephen Ministry. When I talked with her about what we would need to do, I got stopped at "praying out loud" because I absolutely did not do that. She said that the problem was I was praying for the people around me to hear and not to God! I was afraid of what people would think of my prayers and I would need to pray with a care receiver?? She encouraged me to become a Stephen Minister and my fear of praying would change. I did, and it did.

Galatians 5: 22, Fruit of the Spirit, is a very large part of my life and being able to serve God and learn from others has been part of who I am. Then in 2004 I also moved into Prison Ministry and prayed out loud all the time! Why am I always amazed at what God can do when I know He is amazing?

In late 2006, my mom had a stroke. My parents lived with me and after three months, I brought mom home. I had the sweetest mom God ever gave to a child, but with her round-the-clock care, after a few years I had to move away from Stephen Ministry. I couldn't seem to take care of mom, my dad, myself and someone else too. The Stephen Minister needed a Stephen Minister. Momma died in 2015, but I didn't want to start caring for someone else again. I was worn out!

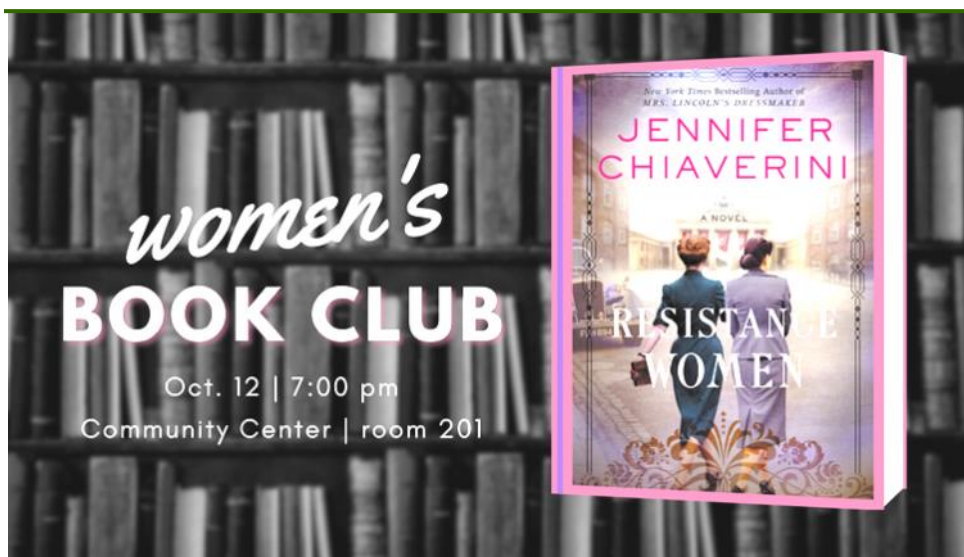

I hesitantly said "yes" to Pastor Lisa when she called a couple months ago to try and pull me out of retirement and back to Stephen Ministry. God nudged, I went, and I am so glad I did. I believe serving God and serving others is where God wants me. The Fruit of the Spirit rings throughout the Stephen Ministry program at West Lawn, through its leaders, through its servants, and through the people we serve. When God nudges you, just feel the fear and do it anyway, and I guess that is the answer as to why I am a Stephen Minister.

OCTOBER 2022

All things autumn are here—pumpkin spice, school, and the return of fall events and activities. Many of our youth are stretched across sports, arts, music, scouting, and any other club, team or group out there! So it's a blessing to have them back, or here for the first time for our youth activities at West Lawn UMC. We have 14 Confirmation students for this year's class and a bunch of new faces in our Middle School program.

We held a special first night titled "Nailed it!" It's based off the hilarious cake decorating show on Netflix. People attempt these difficult designs, and it's always a laugh to see how they didn't quite nail it. Our night's theme was to give youth a place to try new things, and not be great at it. So often in their lives they have to show up as the best—in the classroom they have to have straight As, on the field they have to be the star player, or 1st chair in music, be chosen for the solo, and on and on. We had 5 activity choices, and gave them space to try and fail or try and succeed. Either way, they were made to feel good about just trying.

The hope is that this attitude seeps into our community here at West Lawn. How are they encouraging one another, and cheering each other on? How are they providing a safe space, where you're welcome, no strings attached? Just as Jesus said, "Love your neighbor", this is one small way the youth can create a community that puts those words into action.

Our Newest Members

Colleen Duffy (joined 9/18/22)

Please welcome Colleen Duffy. She and her daughter Delanie have been attending many events at WLUMC and always had a good time. They were looking for a church family and everyone was always so friendly it made them want to join. Colleen also has another daughter, Tori who is 25 and lives in the Philly area, as well as Delanie who is 11 and attends Wilson Virtual Academy. Colleen really enjoys doing family-oriented activities with Delanie. She also enjoys cooking and baking, loves to shop and is also a foster mom for the Animal Rescue League. She fosters kittens and is an admitted animal lover with many fur babies.

Kevin Stodart and Diane Yarger (joined 9/18/22)

Sister and brother, Diane Yarger & Kevin Stodart, are excited join their sister and brother-in-law Marilyn and Don Faughner as members of WLUMC. Diane lives in Sinking Spring with her husband James. They are both retired engineers. Diane likes to garden and is a member of the Garden Club of Reading. She also is a member of the Berks Art Alliance and likes to paint in watercolor and oils. In addition, she also enjoys sewing and baking and has a strong interest in local history and genealogy. She fueled that interest by editing a book titled "History of Clearfield County" that was published by the Clearfield County Historical Society and is in the PA State Library or available from the county. Kevin is also retired and was in the Army in the 1970's. He enjoys music, electronics, and riding his motorcycle.

If you are interested in scheduling a baptism or joining the church, please contact the church office at office@westlawnumc.org / 610-678-5611 or one of the pastors.

Thank You...

Dear West Lawn UMC, We are writing to thank you for your generous classroom donations as always we are so excited to partner with you on behalf of our community.
