

The Divine Mentor – Chapter 2

Study Notes Wed. Oct. 15, 2025

1. The Search for Wisdom:

a. No one, especially new leaders, possesses all the wisdom necessary for their roles. This wisdom must be pursued throughout life. James 3:13.

b. There are two primary sources of learning: _____, which requires discipline and time, and _____, which teaches through pain and suffering. Proverbs 22:3.

2. Choosing the Right Teacher:

a. The chapter contrasts the _____ nature of Wisdom with the _____ nature of Consequences.

b. _____ imparts lessons before mistakes are made, while _____ only provides education after the fact, often at a steep price. Learn from the experiences of others to avoid unnecessary suffering. 1 Corinthians 10:6-11.

3. The Cost of Discipline vs. Regret:

a. There are two types of pain in life: the pain of _____, which fosters growth, and the pain of _____, which hinders progress.

b. Embrace the former to gain divine wisdom and avoid the latter. Psalms 119:66-67.

4. The Value of the Bible:

a. The Bible is the ultimate source of wisdom.

b. It offers timeless lessons from various figures throughout history, allowing readers to learn from their _____ and _____ without having to repeat them.

5. Conclusion:

a. Which Bible character do you identify with the most?

b. Which one would you like to learn from right now?
