

PROPHETIC WORD - INTIMACY WITH GOD

For I would say to the church, wake up! For you have been in a deep sleep for too long. Wake up, wipe the sleep from your eyes and begin to listen to my voice.

For my heart is tender toward you my church, but also fierce. For I am a jealous God and I will have no other gods before me. I am jealous for you my children. I desire a deep place of intimacy in your life. Forsake all other lovers and come to me. Sit at my feet. Linger in my presence.

For there is a wave of my glory that I am beginning to pour out. Don't sleep through it church.... wake up!

For I am awakening desire in you, desire for me.

For you will have a deepening dissatisfaction for the things of this world. You will say, all of this feels so empty" and it is.

I am the only one who can satisfy the deep longing in your heart.

You have sought to fill this longing with other things.

I have placed this dissatisfaction in your heart because my desire is that you would look to me.

Commune with me. Talk with me. Laugh with me. Cry with me. Rejoice with me. Sit with me. Trust me. Ask me questions.

I love you my children and I absolutely love spending time with you. When you don't want to spend time with me, it breaks my heart.

For I created you with a longing inside to be with me. For that is when you are fully awake and fully alive, when you are with me.

Honor me with your whole heart.....your time, your thoughts, your worship, your attention, your finances, your relationships, your choices, your eyes, your nose, all of it.

All of it, for all of me.

Are you willing to go all in?

What will you give up for me?

I gave it all up for you because of my fierce love for you.
