School of the Bible (SOTB) is taught by some of our best Bible teachers. It’s free and there is no homework! SOTB is managed by the Lead Instructor, Lisa Quintana, who attends each class, and keeps attendance for those who want to earn a Certificate of Completion for the class. SOTB is a series of four courses, and if you complete all four, you graduate from the program with a signed certificate from Pastor Tom Flaherty. Questions? please contact Lisa Q. via email:
