A Prayer as We Begin

Lord Jesus Christ, you are the Word incarnate and our true teacher.

Let your Spirit be present as we read and reflect upon your word.

Open our hearts and minds to understand your revelation, that we may be rooted and grounded in your love, and grow into your likeness. Amen.

Praying Our Days: A Guide and Companion by Frank T. Griswold, p. 96, adapted.

Looking ahead: In response to parishioner request, select Sundays in December and January, St. James' Sunday Adult Formation will Study and Pray with the Nicene Creed, on the occasion of its use for 1700 years in the Church.

Looking further ahead: February – May 2026 what would you like to do? Continue a Lectionary Study? Select ONE book from Scripture and study passages from it? Learn about Contemplative Practices such as Praying with Anglican Prayer Beads, Lectio Divina, and other practices from our Anglican heritage and Benedictine Spirituality? Or some other ideas? ... Deacon Lynne and Pastor Valerie are eager to seek the Holy Spirit's leading with you.
