

- The Gospel is central to warfare

e. Family stability

- The centrality of the family to the Biblical story
- The family and the church
- Family and the culture war

VII. Knowing Modern Culture

a. Modern Life

- i. Personhood and self-consciousness
- ii. Ethics in an expressive-individualist culture defaults to a form of utilitarianism

b. Traditional liberal freedoms

- i. Speech and religion

- ii. Religion is now regarded as bigoted

- iii. Tolerance or equality?

- iv. Free speech

c. Other cultural concepts

- i. Critical theory

- ii. Intersectionality

VIII. Engaging Modern Culture

a. Our complicity

- i. Examine for compromise

- ii. Cultivate humility

- iii. Engage in self-criticism and self-policing

b. Lessons from the ancient church

- i. The centrality of community
- ii. Worship and fellowship
- iii. Cultural protest

c. Critical aspects of church life

- i. The whole counsel of God
- ii. Intuitions and biblical worship
- iii. Natural law and the theology of the body

d. The advance of the kingdom

- i. God's sovereignty
- ii. Sharing the mission
- iii. Defending the gospel