CFAN FAMILY,

Thank you for taking up the challenge to focus on Jesus over the next three weeks. I know God will reveal Himself in a special way if you fully dedicate yourself to seeking the Lord. The Bible is clear that we should fast and not worry about what we will eat or drink, but to do one thing and one thing only, and it's in Matthew 6:33: "...But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." That is our objective with this fast. That we would truly seek first His Kingdom, His priorities, and see what He does when we fully submit our hearts and minds to Him.

These 21 days are an invitation to slow down, seek Jesus with fresh focus, and allow Him to shape your heart for what is ahead. Fasting creates room for God to work in ways we normally overlook. It cuts through distraction, realigns our desires, and draws us close to the One we pursue above everything else.

As a church, we are stepping into a new season with open hands and open hearts. These days of prayer and fasting set the foundation for what God wants to do in us and through us as we reach our city and step into the assignments He gives us.

Fasting is a spiritual practice found throughout Scripture. God uses it to bring clarity, deepen hunger, strengthen discernment, and prepare His people for new chapters. Fasting is not about proving anything; it is about pursuing Jesus in a focused and intentional way.

As you fast, pray for a tender heart, a teachable spirit, and fresh passion to follow Jesus wherever He leads.

Seeking Him together,

HOW TO WALK IT OUT

Have a clear focus

Before you begin, write down what you are believing for God to do in your life, your home, and our church. This season sharpens our purpose and prepares us for what is ahead.

Build a simple rhythm

Each day, take time to:

- Read the devotional
- Pray intentionally
- Act on the daily practice
- Note anything the Holy Spirit highlights

Involve your family

Families grow stronger when they seek Jesus together. Kids and teens can choose age-appropriate fasts or daily prayer moments. Remember to make fasting family-oriented: spend time replacing what they're fasting from together. This may look like reading the Bible together, singing your family's favorite worship music, or family prayer. Help your child choose a specific issue, need, concern, or desire to pray for.

Please note that food fasts are NOT appropriate for children! Practical options and ways that kids can fast:

- A sweets fast: Choose healthy foods instead of favorite sweets.
- A digital fast: As a family, decide to fast from favorite forms of technology.
- An activity fast: Choose an activity and replace it with prayer and Bible time.

Give yourself grace

Fasting is not about rules. It is about a relationship. If you slip, simply start again.

Expect God to move

As you step away from comfort and distraction, you will begin to sense clarity and direction. Many experience breakthroughs during seasons of fasting. Keep your heart open.

PRAYER FOCUS: GO AFTER THE ONE

Day One: A Heart That Sees The One

Scripture: Luke 15:4–7

Jesus never saw crowds first; He saw people, individuals, stories, wounds, and possibilities. When He described His mission, He framed it around a shepherd who notices that one sheep is missing, and refuses to accept its lostness as final. That's the heart of God toward every single person in our city and in our path.

We often become accustomed to moving quickly. We rush, schedule, hustle, and manage our own needs. But Jesus slows us down. He teaches us to look up and see who's standing right in front of us: someone at work, someone in your family, someone who's drifting spiritually, someone who carries a quiet ache. The Kingdom always advances one person at a time.

And if we let Him, God will stir our hearts again with the kind of compassion that prompts us to pray for people we might otherwise overlook. The kind of love that softens us toward those who don't think like us. The kind of courage that nudges us to take one small step. An invitation, a conversation, a prayer. Before revival ever looks big, it always begins small; it begins with the one.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, renew my compassion today. Help me see people the way You do. Give me eyes for the one who is far from You, and give me the courage to move toward them.

Fasting Focus:

Let any hunger or craving today remind you to pray for someone who is far from God. Ask Jesus to soften their heart and prepare an open door.

PRAYER FOCUS: GO AFTER THE ONE

Day Two: Remembering The Difference One Person Made

Scripture: Romans 10:14

No one finds Jesus on their own. Somewhere along your journey, someone introduced the Gospel to you. Maybe it was a parent, a coworker, a friend, a preacher, or even a stranger whose kindness cracked open the door of your heart. Someone prayed for you. Someone invited you. Someone believed God still rescues people — and you became the evidence.

When Paul wrote Romans 10, he was reminding the church that salvation always comes through human lips and willing hearts. “How can they hear unless someone tells them?” It’s not pressure — it’s purpose. God has always chosen ordinary people to carry extraordinary news.

Think about the person God used in your story. Think about the moment things shifted for you. Let gratitude rise. And as it does, let it awaken a deeper realization: God wants to use you in someone else’s story the very same way.

You don’t have to preach a sermon. You have to be available. The Gospel still moves through conversations, hospitality, kindness, and the boldness to speak about the hope within you.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, thank You for the people who planted seeds in my life. Use me in the life of someone who needs the hope of Jesus. Make me faithful with the opportunities You place before me.

Fasting Focus:

As you feel the effects of your fast, pray for those who feel spiritually empty. Ask God to give you a burden that reflects His love for them.

PRAYER FOCUS: GO AFTER THE ONE

Day Three: A Heart of Compassion - A Love That Moves Toward People

Scripture: Luke 19:10

Jesus described His mission: “The Son of Man came to seek and save the lost.” Notice the order: seek, then save. He didn’t wait for people to come to Him; He went to them. That’s the difference between passive concern and Gospel compassion. One sits back and hopes people find their way, the other steps into people’s lives with intentional love.

You may not realize it, but God has already placed people in your orbit who are wrestling with emptiness, fear, confusion, or guilt. People who quietly wonder if God sees them. Part of following Jesus is carrying His heart into those spaces; listening, caring, speaking truth, and refusing to let anyone slip through the cracks unnoticed. This is how the Kingdom grows, not by accident, but by pursuit.

As we walk these 21 days, ask God to give you divine appointments. Opportunities to step out of comfort and into purpose. It may feel small, but Heaven celebrates every step toward the one.

Prayer Prompt:

Father, give me Your heart for people. Help me take initiative instead of waiting for moments to come to me. Use my life to draw someone closer to You.

Fasting Focus:

Let today’s fast remind you that people around you are hungry for hope. Pray for opportunities to bring the message of Jesus to someone in need.

PRAYER FOCUS: RAISE UP KINGDOM DISCIPLES

Day Four: Following Jesus With Your Whole Life

Scripture: Matthew 28:19–20

Jesus didn't call us to admire Him; He called us to follow Him. Following isn't passive; it's an active, intentional, and lifelong process. The Great Commission is more than a command to make converts; it's an invitation to form lives around the teachings, character, and priorities of Jesus.

Every believer is called into this. Discipleship isn't reserved for pastors or leaders. It's the normal Christian life. We are all called to learn to hear His voice, obey His Word, and let Him shape our attitudes, decisions, habits, and relationships.

When Jesus says, "I am with you always," He's reminding us that discipleship isn't something we do alone. He walks with us in the highs and the lows, the victories and the failures. Jesus is patient, He's persistent, and He forms us from the inside out.

As you seek Him today, ask: What area of my life is Jesus inviting me to surrender more fully? Where is He calling me deeper?

Prayer Prompt:

Holy Spirit, make me a true follower of Jesus. Teach me to obey, to listen, and to grow. Shape me into a disciple who reflects Your heart.

Fasting Focus:

Let the challenge of fasting remind you that spiritual growth requires intention and discipline. Ask God to strengthen your commitment to follow Him with your whole heart.

PRAYER FOCUS: RAISE UP KINGDOM DISCIPLES

Day Five: When Teaching Becomes Transformation

Scripture: John 14:23

Jesus connects love directly to obedience. The connection between love and obedience is not because He's demanding, but because obedience positions us to experience the fullness of His presence. Every time we obey, we are formed. Every time we resist His voice, we stagnate.

Many Christians know the truth, but they often fail to apply it in their daily lives. Yet Scripture was never meant to be admired; it was meant to be lived.

Transformation doesn't happen by accident. Transformation occurs as the Spirit takes what Jesus taught and writes it onto our hearts. Over time, obedience becomes joy, not duty. And the more we walk with Him, the more our lives carry the fragrance of Christ into our workplaces, neighborhoods, and families.

Today, identify one teaching of Jesus you've heard many times but haven't fully walked out. Start there.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, teach me to obey Your Word with humility and joy. Break any pattern in me that keeps me from becoming more like You.

Fasting Focus:

As you deny yourself something today, pray for a heart that is quick to obey Jesus.

PRAYER FOCUS: RAISE UP KINGDOM DISCIPLES

Day Six: What God Does in You, He Wants to Do Through You

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:2

Paul's words to Timothy reveal a biblical pattern: what God deposits in you is meant to multiply. Disciples make disciples. Spiritual maturity isn't measured by how much we know but by what we reproduce in others. You don't have to be an expert to invest in someone spiritually. You need to be one step ahead and willing to share what God has done in you.

When you encourage someone, pray with them, walk through Scripture with them, or help them take their next step, you're participating in the expansion of the Kingdom. Someone needs your voice. Someone needs your story. Someone needs your faith.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, show me whom I can pour into. Help me invest in others the way You've invested in me. Make my life fruitful in Your hands.

Fasting Focus:

When you feel discomfort today, let it remind you that Jesus is near. Ask Him to deepen your awareness of His presence.

PRAYER FOCUS: ENCOUNTER GOD TOGETHER

Day Seven: We Become Like What We Behold

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 3:18

Paul tells us that as we gaze on the Lord's glory, we are transformed, "from one degree of glory to another." In other words, transformation is a relational process that is born in presence, not performance.

When we gather with other believers and fix our eyes on Jesus, something supernatural happens: hearts soften, chains break, hope rises. The Spirit takes ordinary moments and fills them with divine weight. You were made for these encounters. They realign your desires, reorder your priorities, and remind you that you were never meant to live a self-powered life. The presence of Jesus changes everything.

Today, open your heart with fresh expectation. Ask Him to reveal Himself again.

Prayer Prompt:

Holy Spirit, let me encounter the presence of Jesus today. Transform me as I behold You.

Fasting Focus:

Let today's fast open your hunger for His presence. Ask God to increase your desire for Him.

PRAYER FOCUS: ENCOUNTER GOD TOGETHER

Day Eight: His Presence Sets Us Apart

Scripture: Exodus 33:14–16

Moses understood something we often forget: programs, strategies, and talent aren't what make God's people distinct—His presence does. Without Him, we're just another group of humans trying our best. With Him, we become carriers of Heaven's reality.

What marked Israel wasn't their strength; it was God who walked with them. That's true for us as well. Our lives are meant to hold the nearness of God in worship, prayer, community, and everyday moments. When people encounter us, they should encounter something different... someone different.

Let your prayer today be the same as Moses': "Lord, if Your presence doesn't go with me, I don't want to move."

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, let Your presence rest on me, my home, and my church. Make us a people marked by Your nearness.

Fasting Focus:

Use the quiet created by fasting to worship. Let your sacrifice stir up a deeper desire for His presence.

PRAYER FOCUS: ENCOUNTER GOD TOGETHER

Day Nine: One Pursuit That Changes Everything

Scripture: Psalm 27:4

David had one pursuit: to dwell in God's presence and gaze on His beauty. Everything else flowed from that desire. When Jesus becomes the one thing, everything else finds its rightful place. Worship isn't a warm-up; it's a re-centering, it's a declaration that He is our treasure, our joy, our desire, and our source.

Today, slow down and sit with Him. Let the noise fade and let His voice rise. Let Him awaken hunger in you again.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, be my one pursuit. Freshly capture my heart and draw me deeper into Your presence.

Fasting Focus:

Allow the discomfort of fasting to slow your pace. Ask the Lord to speak clearly as you quiet competing voices.

PRAYER FOCUS: STRENGTHEN THE HOME

Day Ten: A Home Built on Christ

Scripture: Joshua 24:15

Joshua's declaration was more than a slogan; it was a covenant. A decision that, whatever storms came, their home would serve the Lord. Strong homes don't happen automatically. They happen intentionally; they're built on prayer, Scripture, forgiveness, repentance, laughter, and the ongoing commitment to keep Christ at the center.

Whether you're single, married, widowed, or raising kids, your home can be a place where the presence of God rests, a lighthouse in a dark world, a place of peace that pushes back chaos. Ask Jesus to reign in every room.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, make my home a place that honors You. Let Your peace, presence, and truth fill every part of it.

Fasting Focus:

Let your sacrifice remind you to pray for protection, unity, and blessing over your home

PRAYER FOCUS: STRENGTHEN THE HOME

Day Eleven: A Marriage That Reflects Christ

Scripture: Ephesians 5:21–25

Marriage reflects the Gospel. It's a love that sacrifices, serves, and builds up. In a world where relationships fracture easily, Christ-centered marriages stand as testimonies of His faithfulness. A strong marriage isn't perfect; it's surrendered. It's two people drawing close to Jesus and, in doing so, drawing closer to each other.

If you're married, pray a blessing over your spouse. If you're single, pray for the marriages of the church. Strong marriages strengthen the entire house of God.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, bless the marriages in our church. Bring unity, healing, and grace. Strengthen every covenant.

Fasting Focus:

Use your fast today as a reminder to pray for peace and protection over your home. Declare that Christ is the foundation of your household.

PRAYER FOCUS: CHAMPION THE NEXT GEN.

Day Twelve: Passing Faith to the Next Generation in the Home

Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:6–7

Moses called the people of God to weave His words into the rhythm of daily life. These verses paint a picture of discipleship that happens in ordinary moments. Faith is passed on when Scripture is talked about in the context of real conversations. It is shared during mealtimes, car rides, evening prayers, and honest discussions about life.

The home becomes a place of formation when parents model what it means to walk with God. Children watch how you respond to stress, how you celebrate blessings, and how you speak about others. They learn the value of Scripture when they see you open it. They learn trust in God when they hear you pray. Moments like these shape their understanding of who God is.

You do not need to be perfect for God to use you in your home. Your consistency and your presence speak louder than perfect words. Ask the Lord to help you create small but meaningful opportunities today where faith can take root.

Prayer Prompt:

Father, help me model a living faith to my family. Let my home be a place where children encounter Jesus.

Fasting Focus:

Allow the discomfort of fasting to stir up compassion for the youngest in our church and city. Ask God to pour out His Spirit on them.

PRAYER FOCUS: CHAMPION THE NEXT GEN.

Day Thirteen: Young Hearts That Hear God

Scripture: 1 Samuel 3:1–10

The story of Samuel reminds us that God often speaks to young people with clarity and purpose. Samuel did not yet know the voice of the Lord, yet God called him by name. The Lord did not wait for him to reach adulthood. He reached out to Samuel in the quiet of the night and invited him into a relationship and an assignment.

Young hearts can be incredibly sensitive to the voice of God. Their openness, curiosity, and lack of cynicism make them fertile soil for the Spirit to move. When we invest in them, we move in step with the way God has always worked. God delights in calling the young to carry His presence and His word.

Pray today for the children, students, and young adults in our church. Ask God to awaken their spiritual ears and stir their desire to walk closely with Him.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, awaken the next generation. Speak to them, call them, and anoint them for Your purposes.

Fasting Focus:

Fast from music, podcasts, or other audio during certain parts of your day to create space for quiet listening. Ask God to give you a heart that listens like Samuel.

PRAYER FOCUS: CHAMPION THE NEXT GEN.

Day Fourteen: One Generation to Another

Scripture: Psalm 145:4

This Psalm reveals a beautiful design: one generation declares the works of God, and the next generation responds by walking in them. The faithfulness of God is passed down along a line of testimony and experience. When you share what God has done in your life, you become part of that flow.

Every generation has a role to play in the life of the church. Those who have walked with God for many years carry stories that reveal His character. Younger believers carry fresh passion and a new vision. Together, they reflect the fullness of the Kingdom. Take time today to thank God for those who invested in your faith. Ask Him to help you invest in someone coming after you.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, make us faithful in investing in the next generation. Let legacy flow through our church.

Fasting Focus:

Fast one meal today and use that time to pray specifically for someone younger than you. Pray blessings, strength, and calling over their life.

PRAYER FOCUS: CHAMPION THE NEXT GEN.

Day Fifteen: Be an Encourager

Scripture: Jeremiah 1:4–8

Before Jeremiah ever spoke a prophetic word, God declared identity and purpose over his life. God saw who Jeremiah would become before he understood it himself. Many young people today need that same affirmation. They need someone to call out the God-given potential that is often hidden beneath insecurity or doubt.

Your voice carries weight. A single sentence of encouragement can redirect a young person's future. A timely affirmation can awaken courage. A prophetic word spoken in love can set someone on the path God intended for them.

Ask the Lord to show you someone who needs encouragement this week. Pray for the courage to speak life with clarity and hope.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, help me see potential in the next generation and speak life over them with boldness and hope.

Fasting Focus:

Fast from negative speech today. No complaining, no criticism, no discouraging words. Ask God to fill your mouth with life-giving encouragement.

PRAYER FOCUS: SERVE OUR COMMUNITY

Day Sixteen: Seeing Jesus in the Need

Scripture: Matthew 25:35–40

Jesus does not separate Himself from people who are hurting. He describes Himself through the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and the imprisoned. When we serve those in need, we are not simply doing good works. We are ministering to Jesus Himself.

This passage calls us to slow down and notice people. It invites us to see them with compassion rather than convenience. When we take the time to serve, listen, or bring relief, we carry the presence of Christ into places that desperately need hope. Ask the Lord to open your eyes to someone in your world who needs care today.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, give me Your heart for the hurting. Help me see You in the faces of those in need.

Fasting Focus:

Fast a comfort item today, such as caffeine or a favorite snack. Let the physical longing remind you to pray for those who lack necessities.

PRAYER FOCUS: SERVE OUR COMMUNITY

Day Seventeen: Faith That Acts

Scripture: James 2:15–17

James makes it clear that genuine faith produces action. When faith is alive, it becomes visible. Alive faith feeds the hungry, supports the weary, and responds to need. It is not content to observe suffering from a distance. You may feel limited in what you can do, but God multiplies obedience. One simple act of kindness or generosity can become a turning point for someone else. God often uses the small things to produce significant change. Ask Him today to show you one specific way you can serve someone meaningfully.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, give me hands that act on the faith in my heart, show me whom I can serve today.

Fasting Focus:

Fast one form of entertainment today, and use that time to take a practical action that blesses someone.

PRAYER FOCUS: SERVE OUR COMMUNITY

Day Eighteen: Planted in the City on Purpose

Scripture: Jeremiah 29:7

God told His people in exile to seek the welfare of the city where He placed them. They were instructed to build, plant, pray, and contribute to the flourishing of that place. This reminds us that God intentionally positions His people. Where you live, work, and worship matters to Him.

Your presence in this city is purposeful. God desires to bless Parkland and the surrounding region through His people. When the city prospers, we share in that blessing. When the city grieves, we stand with it as carriers of hope.

Pray today that God will use our church to bring His peace and presence into every corner of our community.

Prayer Prompt:

Father, let Your peace and presence flow through us into our city. Use us to bring hope and healing.

Fasting Focus:

Fast from social media for part of the day and use that space to pray specifically for your neighborhood and city.

PRAYER FOCUS: LEAD WITH GENEROSITY

Day Nineteen: A Heart That Mirrors Jesus

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 9:6–8

Generosity begins with remembering what God has already given us. He held nothing back. He gave His Son and continues to pour out grace. When His Spirit works in our hearts, we begin to reflect that same generosity in our everyday lives.

Generosity involves more than finances. It includes time, energy, compassion, and encouragement. A generous heart looks for opportunities to give because it recognizes that everything we have belongs to God. Ask the Lord to shape your heart so it reflects His nature.

Prayer Prompt:

Jesus, shape me into a generous person. Let my giving reflect Your nature.

Fasting Focus:

Fast a meal and give the time or money you would have spent to bless someone else. Let generosity flow from the place of sacrifice.

PRAYER FOCUS: LEAD WITH GENEROSITY

Day Twenty: Investing in What Lasts

Scripture: Matthew 6:19–21

Jesus reminds us that earthly treasures fade. They wear out, break down, or lose value. Eternal treasures endure forever. Eternal treasure is found in people, in the work of God, and in the advancement of His purpose in the world.

Your investments reveal your priorities. Where your treasure goes, your heart follows. When you choose to invest in the Kingdom, you align your life with God's agenda and experience the joy that comes from living with eternal vision. Ask the Lord to help you focus your time and resources on what carries lasting impact.

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, teach me to invest my life in things that carry eternal value. Align my heart with Yours.

Fasting Focus:

Fast from an unnecessary purchase today. Let the restraint create room for gratitude and eternal perspective.

PRAYER FOCUS: LEAD WITH GENEROSITY

Day Twenty-One: A Life That Overflows

Scripture: Acts 20:35

Jesus declared that giving brings blessing. A life shaped by generosity overflows with joy. A church shaped by generosity becomes a powerful agent of transformation. When we give with sincerity and sacrifice, we participate in the very nature of Christ. He poured Himself out completely for us.

As we come to the end of these 21 days, ask God to make generosity an ongoing part of your lifestyle. Pray for our church family to overflow in every expression of giving. Hospitality, finances, service, encouragement, compassion, and presence all reveal the heart of Jesus.

Prayer Prompt:

Father, let generosity overflow from my life into our church, our city, and the nations. Make us a people who give as Jesus gave.

Fasting Focus:

Fast one final meal today and spend the time thanking God for what He has done in these 21 days. Ask Him to help you carry this spirit of devotion forward.

LET'S CELEBRATE 21 DAYS OF PRAYER AND FASTING!

As we come to the end of these 21 days, pause and recognize what God has done in you. Slowing down to seek Him has created space for His voice to become clearer. The discipline of fasting has reminded your soul where true strength comes from. Prayer has softened your heart and lifted your eyes. Time in the Word has renewed your mind and anchored you in truth.

You may have felt the Lord nudge you to take new steps of faith, sensed Him refining your priorities, or healing places that needed His touch. You may have heard His voice in ways you were longing for. Our hope is that you are more aware of His presence in your everyday life. These are all signs that He is drawing you closer.

Spiritual hunger is growing in you, and that is a gift. You have pressed in, and He has answered. You have created room, and He has filled it. You have sought Him, and He has revealed more of Himself.

Celebrate what God has begun in your heart. Celebrate the prayers He has already answered and the ones He is still unfolding. Celebrate the clarity, the courage, the breakthrough, and the renewed devotion. Celebrate the simple fact that you are closer to Jesus today than you were three weeks ago.

This journey is not ending; it is setting the stage for everything God is calling you into next. And as we gather for Vision Sunday, we do so with fresh faith, expecting God to move powerfully in us and through us.

I am proud of you and am grateful to be on this journey that God has us on together.
