PREPARING

What if you felt the invisible tug between you and everything?

A boy on a bicycle rides by,
his white shirt open, flaring behind him like wings.

It's a hard time to be human. We know too much and too little. Does the breeze need us?

The cliffs? The gulls?

If you've managed to do one good thing,
the ocean doesn't care.

But when Newton's apple fell toward the earth,
the earth, ever so slightly, fell toward the apple as well.

Call to Worship

Lee Posner

Come, all who are weary and thirsty for grace.
Come, all who hunger for love, justice, and mercy.
This is the table of Christ—open to all.
Let us come with joy and reverence, for here, Christ meets us.
We come not because we are loved and invited.
We come to remember, to be fed, and to be made whole.

Scripture Reading

John 4:5-26

So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink'. (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, 'How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?' (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.)

WORSHIP SERVICE

Jesus answered her, 'If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink", you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?

Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?' Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.'

Jesus said to her, 'Go, call your husband, and come back.' The woman answered him, 'I have no husband.' Jesus said to her, 'You are right in saying, "I have no husband"; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!' The woman said to him, 'Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.' Jesus said to her, 'Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.' The woman said to him, 'I know that Messiah is coming' (who is called Christ). 'When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.' Jesus said to her, 'I am he, the one who is speaking to you.'

Communion Service

Seventh-day Adventists practice open Communion, so all members and guests are invited to participate. (Let deacons know if you need a gluten-free wafer.)

The Lord's Prayer

Rebecca Barceló

And now, with the confidence of the children of God, let us pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Breaking the Bread

Uriel Herinirina

We remember Jesus who took bread in his hands, broke it, gave it to his friends, and said, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. Take, eat, this is my body, which is for you. Do this to remember me."

Offering the Cup

Rebecca Barceló

We remember Jesus who took the wine cup in his hands and gave thanks for it. He gave it to them and said, "This is the new covenant sealed by my blood. When you drink from it, do this in memory of me." Whoever partakes in his flesh and blood, abides in Christ and Christ in them."

Congregational Response

God of the past and the present, with this bread and wine we remember your Son. We thank you for his life, his death, and resurrection. We look for his coming in glory and in him we give ourselves to you.

Prayer

Uriel Herinirina

God of love, send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that as we receive this bread and wine we shall by faith receive the body and blood of Christ. Called to follow him, help us to reconcile and unite. Called to serve, give us hope in our calling.

(The deacons will now come forward to serve the bread and cup.)

Communion Service

Receiving the Bread

Uriel Herinirina

The Bread we break is sharing in the body of Christ.

Receiving the Cup

Rebecca Barceló

The cup we take is a sharing in the blood of Christ.

Congregational Response

Our illusions of insufficiency fade here, for we who share this bread are bound to Christ's body.

Partaking of the Bread

Uriel Herinirina

Here are bread and wine; the gifts of God for the people of God.

Partaking of the Cup

Rebecca Barceló

May we, who share these gifts, be found in Christ and Christ in us. Take eat and drink.

Congregational Response

May we who share Christ's body live his risen life; We who drink his cup bring life to others.
We whom the spirit enlightened give light to the world.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

VBS at Glendale Adventist Academy:

Vacation Bible School was a hit this past week, July 14–18, at Glendale Adventist Academy, with approximately 150 kids registered! With an Alaskan wilderness theme, “True North,” children explored what it means to trust in Jesus when they feel alone, hopeless, or powerless. GCC was proud to help make this fun and faith-filled event possible, encouraging so many kids to grow closer to Jesus.
