COLLEGE FIRST
CHURCH OF GOD

Love. Equip. Send.

June 18, 2025

Dear College First family,

Please pray for our students and leaders on a mission trip in rural Kentucky this week...and those attending Camp Otyokwah.

This Saturday is our next Chopin Hall Food Drive in our church parking lot from 8-10 AM. All are welcome to serve. Please park on Main Street.

Saturday is also my grandma's funeral in Springfield, Missouri. She was 99! Please pray for me as I officiate. She was the greatest servant I've ever known.

This Sunday we'll recognize our high school graduates.

If you've never been baptized as a follower of Jesus, you're invited to do so on July 13 (10 AM) or July 20 (11 AM). Please contact the office for details or send me an e-mail.

Blessings,

Kirk

FYI Spotlight: Funeral Meal Ministry Team

As we read through the gospels, we find more than a few stories of Jesus sharing meals with his disciples and with others in the communities where he ministered. Sharing a meal with others fulfills several purposes. Obviously, we have to eat from time to time to survive. But, more than that, dining with others is often the perfect place for people to get to connect and share in all the good and bad that comes our way.

We praise God for the Funeral Meal ministry team at College First who also sees the great value and purpose of shared meals. This ministry team provides and serves meals following a funeral or memorial service. When family and friends are in some of their deepest moments of grief, sharing a meal with others can offer encouragement and support, along with allowing a place for memories to be shared through both laughter and tears.

The Funeral Meal ministry team is in need of help to keep this ministry going. If you would be willing to help provide food for others, please contact Sandy Snyder or Pastor Kimberly (kreese@collegefirst.org). Sandy contacts the ministry team as needs arise; team members then provide food only when their schedules allow (it is NOT expected to provide food with every ask). Homemade food and purchased food are both appreciated! Thank you for your consideration in being a part of this team.
