SUNDAY REFRESHER

There's something compelling about being lost - about journeying, searching, moving forward without the comfort of knowing exactly what comes next. This message reminds us why Expedition exists: to make disciples who love God and people, and to see lives transformed by the values and priorities of Jesus.

Like Israel standing at the edge of the Jordan, we can see the "land ahead," but we cannot control how it will feel to step into it. And that's where faith gets real... God doesn't just give directions, He goes before His people and shows them the way, one step at a time.

PERSONAL REFLECTIONS

- What did God say to you through this passage and teaching?
- Did God reveal anything new to you?
- How is this relevant in your journey to make disciples who Love God and Love people?

QUESTIONS

- Looking back on 2025, what stands out as reasons to be thankful for the ways God was at work at Expedition Church?
- Where do you feel like you are “standing at the river” right now - staring into a season you cannot fully predict?
- What is one fear that rises up when you think about change (loss, failure, discomfort, uncertainty) - and what would it look like to trust God anyway?
- As we look toward 2026, what unknown territory might God be inviting you to personally step into within our church family?

SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

Matthew 22:37–40 (ESV) | Matthew 28:18–20 (ESV) | Joshua 3:2–5 (ESV)

CONCLUSION

Israel stood at the edge of a flooded river with the Promised Land in sight - and Joshua said something that still speaks to us: “for you have not passed this way before.” Joshua 3:4 (ESV) God’s people have always been led into new territory, and the point was never having the whole map - the point was following the One who goes before them.
