Missions Moment

November Missions: Christmas Gifts for Missionaries

The November Globe offerings will go towards Christmas gifts for our supported missionaries. The Mission Team has decided to match the congregational giving up to $400.00 for each of the five missionaries. This money will come from the discretionary funds. The following is a brief look into each missionary.

Brian and Phyllis Hovey—They are all back together, safe and healthy, after Phyllis' health scare this last year and Brian's quick trip back to Minnesota. They have made significant progress on the health clinic in PNG, having installed working solar panels that generate power for the clinic, their home, and the Bible College.

Dan and Erin Pack—AKINA Minneapolis has had a busy summer with camps and trips and are now concentrating on updating areas of their building with various painting projects, carpet installation, and a laundry area for AKINA families. Most recently, Cornerstone helped them purchase some round tables and locked storage cabinets for supplies.

Dave and Cathrin Osterhus—ReachGlobal Austria, are due for a Recharge and Reconnect with family and friends in Minnesota starting in February 2026 and we hope they can visit with us then. While they are back here, their daughter Jana will be serving at Camp Shamineau and son Jake will be at YWAM Discipleship Training School. In Austria, they have been leading Life-Mapping classes, a church leadership retreat and forming a new Mountain Adventure Outreach Team.

Josh and Nicole Wilke—Living in Arequipa, Peru, the Wilkes are working with Orphan Care Ministries. They are working tirelessly to abate the 700-800 children that go missing every month while assassinations and extortions are increasing in Peru. Josh recently obtained his driver's license and they will be purchasing a vehicle with help from Cornerstone and other supporters. Nicole continues to write books, with her most recent being a children's book with all the proceeds going directly into their ministry.

Steve and Kathy Austvold—The Austvolds remain active in the North Central District of ECFA. Steve as a Mission Mobilizer. Kathy no longer leads a Global Fingerprint site, as the government in that country did not renew their ministry license, but she remains active in the organization. They are currently traveling to Asia for a Global FingerPrint conference and a brief vacation. Steve is planning another mission trip in January.

If you wish to contribute to any of our Missionaries' Christmas gifts, please place your donations in the Globe on the Mission shelf in the lobby, on the church website, or through the App, just be sure to designate for "November Globe Missions."

REMINDER...

If you would like to provide a donation of money for the Mission's of the Month Ministry please put it inside the globe in the lobby, designate it in the offering box, or designate Mission's Globe through donations on the website/App.
