WORLD COMMUNION

LUKE 22:19-20 & I CORINTHIANS 11:23-25

Holy Communion

Luke 22:19-20 and 1 Corinthians 11:23-25 record the institution of the Lord's Supper, presenting both Luke's Gospel account and Paul's apostolic instruction to the Corinthian church. Writing to the Corinthians in the sixth decade of the first century, Paul provides the first written account we have of Jesus' last evening with his disciples. His description, like the similar Synoptic accounts, shows how deeply this memory shaped the early church.

During the Passover meal on the night He was betrayed, Jesus transformed ancient Jewish symbols into profound Christian ordinances. The broken bread represents His body and the poured wine in the cup represents His blood shed to institute the new covenant with His people.

The Lord's Supper Commanded

We read the account of Christ's institution of the Lord's Supper in several places in the New Testament, including today's passage. From Luke 22:14-20 we learn several things about the supper. First, we must note its connection to the Passover. Jesus commanded us to observe the Lord's Supper in the context of the Passover meal, suggesting that the supper is in some way a replacement for that old covenant feast.

You Don't Have to Walk This Path Alone

Being a caregiver is one of life's most meaningful roles—and one of its most challenging. The sleepless nights, difficult decisions, and emotional ups and downs are all part of a journey that requires incredible strength, patience, and love. If you've ever felt isolated in your caregiving experience, we want you to know: you are not alone.

Our Caregiver Support Group meets every Wednesday at 10:00 AM in the Conference Room, creating a safe haven where your experiences are understood and your dedication is honored. In our weekly sessions, you'll discover a community of people who share your struggles and celebrate your victories, offering practical advice, a listening ear, and the comfort of knowing others walk a similar path. Come as you are—no registration required, no judgment offered—just genuine support and the warm embrace of people who truly understand. Your caregiving journey deserves recognition, support, and community, and we'd be honored to have you join us.

Open Hearts, Open Hands: Join Us for Extravagant Generosity

Have you ever experienced that incredible feeling when you give from a place of pure joy? That moment when generosity isn't an obligation, but a celebration?

That's what we're exploring together this fall.

Starting October 12, our "Extravagant Generosity" Stewardship Campaign invites each of us to reflect on what it means to be A Healthy Church for a Healthy World. This isn't just about budgets and pledges—it's about discovering how our gifts, when freely given, create ripples of healing and hope that extend far beyond our walls.

We need you in this vision.

Your prayers, your presence, your service, and yes, your financial support—they all matter. Each act of generosity, large or small, weaves into the tapestry of ministry that makes our church a beacon of light and love.

Ready to Take the Next Step?

Estimate of Giving cards are available now in the church office. Stop by anytime during office hours to pick one up. These cards help us prayerfully plan how we'll serve, grow, and reach out in the year ahead.

As you consider your commitment for 2026, we encourage you to pray about what extravagant generosity might look like for you. Not out of guilt or pressure, but from gratitude for all we've been given. Let's build a healthier church for a healthier world—together.

Questions? Want to learn more about our vision for 2026? Contact the church office or join us for our kickoff on October 12.

Generosity: Our Response to Grace

Your gifts matter. When you give to Lakeview, you're not just supporting a ministry—you're joining God's transformative work in our community and beyond.

Why Generosity Matters

Our giving reflects our hearts. As recipients of God's boundless generosity, we're invited to participate in His kingdom work through our own generous giving. Every gift—whether large or small—becomes part of something greater than ourselves.

Simple Ways to Give

We've made giving convenient with seamless online options that allow you to participate in ministry impact anytime, anywhere.

"Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." — 2 Corinthians 9:7

Join us in experiencing the joy that comes from stewarding God's resources with open hands and grateful hearts.
