Moses died just shy of the promised land.
Sometimes our journey of faith is like that.
We get the wandering and the wilderness,
but the end may be hard to see.
We plant trees so others will harvest the fruit.

We build structures and societies
that will benefit generations down the road.
Don't let the distance from the finish line
keep you from enjoying the journey.

Let us journey on, heading toward the promised land together.

THE STORY THAT SHAPES US

The Story That Shapes Us is an eight-week Bible study exploring Scripture through its diverse literary forms—story, poetry, prophecy, gospel, letters, and vision. Each week highlights a different kind of biblical writing, offering a big-picture understanding that connects Scripture to everyday faith without requiring expert knowledge.

Leadership rotates weekly, with a different group member guiding each session. This shared model encourages participation, honors the wisdom of the community, and invites fresh perspectives as the group listens together for how God's story continues to shape faith and life.

Watching the Weather

We will be keeping an eye on the weather...and will post online or FaceBook by 9am if Sunday Service is cancelled.

“This week, spend a moment in silence, listening to where God is calling you to extend love. Where have you seen a need? What in this world needs to be turned upside down so that the kingdom of heaven is brought nearer?

Spend a few moments in silence. As you breathe in, say, “God, expand my heart.” As you exhale, say, “Teach me to love boldly.” Repeat slowly.”

Service is not just something we do—it is a response to God's love at work within us.

This week we turn our attention to Serving Joyfully, discovering how our gifts, passions, and shared life become expressions of God's grace in the world. When we serve with joy, mission becomes meaningful and community grows deeper.

There is a place for you in this work. Your gifts matter.
