

Generosity Journey

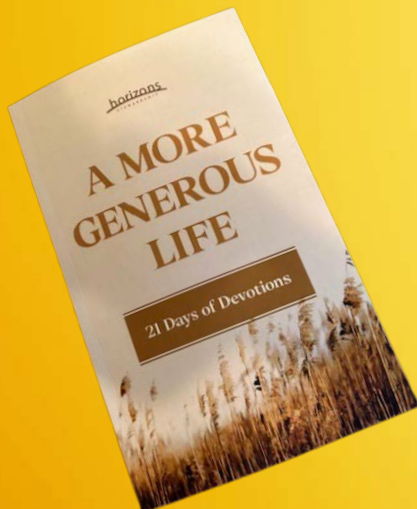

Worship Series: 10-12-25 to 11-02-25

Volume 5
Issue 2

Your way to be a part of the new sermon series....

While we have an opportunity to practice the spiritual discipline of generosity each week, it's the time of year when we spend intentional time talking about stewardship and generosity and the difference it makes to our spiritual lives. This year, we are going to explore the 21-day devotional guide "A More Generous Life" together, along with intentional worship, prayer, and community conversation. People of God, this is not a fundraising campaign; it is a way of life - we are a grateful, thankful people who are always seeking to nurture our spiritual growth and to live more generously. Your Leadership Team is so committed to deepening this aspect of our faith lives that we are giving you a free devotional guide that I would encourage you to begin using this week in preparation for our next series - the Generosity Journey.

If you didn't pick your envelope up on Sunday it will be mailed to your home this week. If you don't get on call the church office.

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY REVISITED

Thank you to Pastor Desi for the setup of "all kinds of bread" for "all kinds of people" on the Comunion Table
And also thank you to Marilyn & her friend Betty for the lovely Fall flowers

Thank You!

Church family,

I want to share my heartfelt thanks for your generosity and enthusiasm during our Fortissimo Fundraiser: Adopt-a-Key Campaign. In just a few short weeks, you not only met the $2,200 goal to restore our sanctuary Steinway grand and choir room Baldwin upright, you also embraced the stretch vision to protect these instruments for years to come.

Your quick and generous response has been overwhelming. It speaks volumes about how deeply the music ministry is treasured at St. Paul's. These instruments have carried our worship for decades, and because of you, they will continue to do so with renewed strength and beauty.

There may still be a few small expenses as the work is completed, but thanks to your faithfulness, the project is essentially fully funded, with work beginning this week. Every note we play in worship is now also a note of gratitude for you.

With deep appreciation,

Sharon Reese

Director of Music Ministries
