Song: What Does the Lord Require of You

Prayer of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

Generous God, You give us gift upon gift; the fruits of Your Spirit for the good of all creation. But we hoard and hide Your blessings, using them for our own gain. You call us into community; to share and to uphold, and to be supported and strengthened for Your work in the world. But we withhold ourselves, and our gifts, from the messy complications of communal life. Show us how to walk willingly into life as Your people and as Your church. Teach us patience, self control and kindness with one another, give us the love, joy and peace that comes from life in You, and make us good, gentle, and faithful servants. Help us bear good fruit in a world desperate for Your love, grace and mercy. Hear us now as we pray...
