MESSAGE OVERVIEW

Worship is our response to who God is and what He has done for us—He is Lord over all and gave His life so we could have eternal life. Because of that, our worship shouldn't be half-hearted; it should involve our whole selves—heart, soul, mind, and strength. The Bible shows that singing loud, cheering, and lifting our hands are physical ways to express what's happening in our hearts. When we worship expressively, it not only honors God but also strengthens our faith and can even encourage the people around us to see how great He really is.
