Prayers for our Nation:

Isaiah 9:6-7 For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests on his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom, He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Luke 2:14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace and goodwill among people."

Service of Scripture, Prayer and Music

November 30, 2025, 10:30 am

First Sunday of Advent

Prelude

“O Come, All Ye Fathful”

John F. Wade
arr. James Koerts

Welcome/Announcements

Advent Candle Lighting

Reader 1: Today we are inspired by the hope of fulfilled promises. Abraham, Sarah and Hagar hoped for fulfillment through the birth of their sons. They were met with challenges and obstacles that clouded the joy of their anticipation.

Reader 2: Angels communicated with Mary about a new thing God was doing in her for the well being of the whole world. Perhaps the greatest promise of God’s was to be fulfilled. The path forward would not be easy. As we celebrate advent, we recognize it is not just a baby that we are preparing for, but the fulfillment of God’s promises for good on the Earth.

Reader 1: “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world but in order that the world might be saved through him.” John 3:16-17

Reader 2: There may be times when all we see are the obstacles between us and future goodness. However, the light of God is coming. There is room for hope once more. AMEN.
