

The Lord of the Storm | John 6:16-21

Study Questions

Before answering these questions, take some time to read the passage from the sermon together or on your own.

What did this sermon tell us about God?

What did this sermon tell us about us as people?

What did you hear in this sermon that applied the most to your own life?

How does Jesus' claim to be the "I am" strike you? Is it something that you have known for a while and therefore grown sort of indifferent too? How can you shake that? Is this a newer idea or claim to you? What implications do you believe it has for your life? How can you live differently in light of Jesus' claim to be the I am?

What is your biggest fear? Make a list of the things you fear the most either as a group or individual. How does Jesus help you not to fear those things? What are some ways you can lean into his command "Don't be afraid"?

What is your relationship with Jesus when it comes to the storms of your life? Do you draw more near to him than usual? Pull back from him more than usual? What causes that response and how can you rely on him to carry you through the storms you face?
