

He raises
the poor out
of the dust,
and lifts the needy out of the ash
heap, That He may seat
him with princes-
With the princes of His people.

Risen!

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Arrianna was only with us for a short time. She came to the Mission lost and seeking answers. She found those answers in service to our Lord Jesus Christ. She asked and He delivered. This is the letter she wanted me to share with all of you. Praise the Lord for deliverance!

'Coming to The Mission was the most difficult thing I have ever had to face. It tore me apart to humble myself and confront the painful truth of where my life had veered off course. As I stepped through those doors, I was met with hearts so full of compassion and kindness, they felt like a lifeline. My daughter and I desperately needed a safe haven where we could truly begin again. The mission did more than just give us a fresh start. It opened my eyes to see that the life I had clung to before was built on sand, and only through God's grace did I find the strength to rebuild—this time, on the unshakable rock of His love.

While I was at The Mission, I was given the opportunity to get closer with God, to open my mind and heart to Him in a way I had never done before. I was broken, lost, with fear and overwhelming anxiety. Yet, I found hope and peace in His presence.

God has redirected my life, I now have a job where I can share my faith with others and the desire to share what I've found with everyone. There was a time when I hesitated, feeling awkward when someone would ask, "Can I pray with you?" but now, I am the person who eagerly prays with you, or for you whether in quiet or out loud for all to hear. I truly believe that God placed Bonney and Josh, and everyone at The Mission into my life for a purpose. Their presence, The Mission, everything it represented—it's transformed me in ways I can never fully express. My heart is forever grateful for the blessings it has given me and my family. This is living proof God has a perfect plan for us.'
