PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

HYMN #519 (1-3) Lift Every Voice and Sing

INVOCATION (in unison)

God of all creation, in your divine providence and wisdom, you have called us, your children, to be living witnesses to your truth, love and justice in the world. We ask today that you continue to give us the grace and strength to be instruments of your mercy and compassion in a world that is often filled with hatred, bigotry and indifference. This day we bow before you in humble submission, in remembrance and thanksgiving for the life and legacy of all your faithful servants who stood in the face of great obstacles. We ask for that same strength, that only you can provide as we face difficult days ahead. In Jesus' Name we pray. AMEN.

CALL TO WORSHIP

ONE: There have been many dreams, many dreamers.

Today we remember Martin Luther King Jr. who dreamed of justice rolling down like the waters, of a beloved community where all people find kinship, belonging, dignity and love.

ALL: We, too, dream of justice and your beloved community. May we, like Dr. King, respond with our voices, with our lives and in your love.

ONE: Awaken us to our dreams, Holy God — and to your voice speaking from within them.

ALL: Awaken us to your world, Holy God — and to the places where our greatest joy can meet the world's greatest need.

UNISON READING

Gracious God, there are times when instead of thinking too highly of ourselves we think too little of ourselves. Keep us encouraged so that when you call us to serve using our gifts, that you give us, we are affirmed to use those gifts to their full potential. Amen!

Rabbi Or Zohar

Rabbi Or Zohar came to serve as Temple Sinai's Senior Rabbi in the Summer of 2024. Rabbi Zohar moved to Rochester with his family from the Galilee, Israel, where he served for eight years as the Reform Rabbi of the Misgav Regional Council. Previously, Rabbi Zohar served as the rabbi of Congregation Ma'at Tivon in Kiryat Tivon, and as the founding rabbi of Kehilat Halev, one of the Daniel Centers for Progressive Judaism in Tel Aviv.

Parallel to his work at the pulpit, Rabbi Zohar served as the founding director of the Spirit of the Galilee, an organization that promotes inter-religious and inter-cultural dialogue between Jews, Christians, Muslims and Druze in northern Israel. His work helped to reduce conflict and increase trust and collaborations between Jewish and Arab communities in that region.

Rabbi Zohar is a composer of sacred Jewish music. As part of the duo "Feliza & Or Zohar", he has released 4 albums of original sacred Jewish music, toured extensively throughout North America and Europe. His liturgical compositions are published in TMP's musical compilations such as Shireynu and Libi Bamizrach.

Rabbi Zohar is a lifelong student and researcher of Kabbalah and Jewish spirituality, seeking to integrate these paths of ancient wisdom in relevant and approachable ways in contemporary contexts. He has taught Kabbalah and Jewish Spirituality both in Israel and as a scholar in residence in congregations throughout North America.

Rabbi Zohar was ordained at the Jerusalem campus of HUC-JIR in 2012. He received his MA (Summa cum laude) in Jewish Philosophy from Tel Aviv University, and a BA in Jewish Thought and Indian Studies from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Rabbi Zohar is married to Feliza, and together they have 4 children.
