Gather Us In

1 Here in this place the new light is stream-ing; now is the dark-ness
 2 We are the young, our lives are a mys-tery. We are the old who 3 Here we will take the wine and the wa-ter; here we will take the 4 Not in the dark of build-ings con-fin-ing, not in some heav-en, van-ished a-way; see in this space our fears and our dream-ings yearn for your face. We have been sung through-out all of his-tory, bread of new birth. Here you shall call your sons and your daugh-ters, light years a-way: here in this place the new light is shin-ing;

brought here to you in the light of this day.
 called to be light to the whole hu-man race.
 call us a-new to be salt for the earth.
 now is the king-dom, and now is the day.

Gath-er us in, the lost and for-sak-en; gath-er us in, the Gath-er us in, the rich and the haugh-ty; gath-er us in, the Give us to drink the wine of com-pas-sion; give us to eat the Gath-er us in and hold us for-ev-er; gath-er us in and blind and the lame; call to us now, and we shall a-wak-en; proud and the strong; give us a heart, so meek and so low-ly;

 bread that is you; nour-ish us well, and teach us to fash-ion make us your own; gath-er us in, all peo-ples to-geth-er, we shall a-rise at the sound of our name.

 give us the cour-age to en-ter the song.
 lives that are ho-ly and hearts that are true.
 fire of love in our flesh and our bone.

The "you/your" mentioned in every stanza is never identified, but this 1979 hymn is clearly a corporate prayer to God on behalf of the diverse congregation who have assembled for worship, longing to be transformed and used as God's witnesses and for God's purposes.

 let us praise God to - geth - er on our knees. (on our knees)

Refrain

When I fall on my knees, with my face to the ris - ing sun,

O Lord, have mer - cy on me. (on me)

This African American spiritual quite possibly reflects the circumstances of slaves attending early morning communion services in colonial Anglican churches, but its combination of hope ("rising sun") and supplication ("Lord, have mercy") speaks to many worshipers' experience.

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means "delightful") gives us a foretaste of endless song.
