First Sunday: de'Angelo DIA

Sunday, April 7, 9:30 - 10:30 a.m., Fellowship Hall and on Zoom
"Theopoet" and mystic de'Angelo DIA examines culture and moral imagination through poetry, performance art, and photography.

He'll help us explore the ways in which childhood nostalgia, media, art, and literature can engage the Divine and bear witness to the Divine in others. Together, we'll ask the question, "As we encounter stories that aren't our own, how is our faith affected?"

Dr. Lucretia Berry

"Hues of You" Workshop for Parents and Kids

Sunday, April 14, 9:30 - 10:30 a.m., Recreation Wing Gym
Crafted by Lucretia Berry, an experienced educator and advocate for antiracism, Hues of You offers a smart and honest starting point to help kids, families, schools, and communities have natural, effective, and meaningful conversations that build connection and positive pathways regarding diversity within humanity. We will welcome Dr. Berry to Covenant to lead our children in this beautiful workshop. Parents will attend with their children. Write "Hues of You" on your WRC if you plan to attend.

Women's Ministry Dinner

Wednesday, May 8, 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall
All women are invited to gather for a night of fellowship and celebration of the various ministries with and for women at Covenant. Write "Women's Dinner" on your WRC if you plan to attend.

Service Trips and Volunteer Opportunities

Our local and global outreach ministries connect your talents and passions with service to our neighbors. To get involved write "Service" on your WRC.

Children and Youth

Our children's ministry invites children into our church home where they are called by name, discover discipleship, and grow in love of God and service to others. To find out more write "children and youth" on your WRC.

Congregational Care

Covenant nurtures physical, mental and spiritual well-being through a variety of ministries. You can volunteer your time or request support by writing "Congregational Care" on your WRC.

Bible Study and Sunday School

We offer a variety of small groups, Bible studies and learning opportunities Sunday through Thursday, on and off campus. If you would like to get involved in a Bible study or small group, write "Bible study" on your WRC.

Recreation Ministry

Our Recreation Center offers programs to strengthen minds, bodies, and spirits. Classes and gym facilities are available to church members and nonmembers on a drop-in and membership basis.

Write "Recreation Ministry" on your WRC to learn more.

Music and Arts

If you're interested in singing with the adult choir, playing handbells, contributing your musical gifts to the contemporary worship team, or creating visual arts in the Sanctuary or Fellowship Hall, please write "Music and Arts" on your WRC.

Serve in the Church

A wide variety of volunteers are needed every Sunday and during the week. If you're interested in teaching Children's Sunday School, joining the AV Crew, driving the van, doing small handyman projects around campus, or being an usher, please write "Serve in the Church" on your WRC.
