Commitment Sunday

Today, November 16

Today, through Commitment Sunday and Covenant Impacts Charlotte, we intentionally act out our belief as a congregation that faithfulness is reflected in both our financial support to the mission of the church as well as in service to our nonprofit mission partners that are bravely working toward a whole and just world. Please join us for a CIC project and chili lunch at noon. If you have not signed up for a project, there are volunteers out on the circle that can help you.

Stewardship 2026 : My Heart Knows

A Message from Our Stewardship Campaign Chairs:

“Thank you for the ways you have shared what your heart knows about Covenant over the past months. It has been such an encouragement to see the many ways you each feel called to participate in the life and mission of this church. Our community, our city, and our world are enriched by all that you bring. We invite you to consider financially supporting Covenant in 2026 as we together commit to the continued growth of this church that we call home.”
