

In John 10 Jesus retreats to where “John was baptizing at first.” This site (left) on the east bank of the Jordan River is widely accepted as Bethany beyond the Jordan. Excavations confirm the existence of a significant baptismal site associated with John the Baptist, aligning with John 10:40-42’s reference to Jesus returning to this area. The retreat to this area highlights Jesus’ withdrawal from Jerusalem’s hostility and gaining followers who recall John the Baptist’s testimony.

And He went away again beyond the Jordan to the place where John was baptizing at first, and there He stayed. Then many came to Him and said, “John performed no sign, but all the things that John spoke about this Man were true.” And many believed in Him there. John 10.40-42
