

Not everyone agrees that Jesus is “_____ with us”:

Muslims:

- believe Jesus is one of God's greatest _____ and thus, see Him as a _____ of God – but not _____
- do not believe Jesus _____ – the Quran states that Jesus was not crucified, but rather was made to _____ so
- believe He ascended bodily to God after He died a _____ death
- reject the _____ of Jesus by His _____ death on the cross
- reject the doctrine of the _____ and believe in God's unique oneness – “Tawhid”

Mormons:

- believe Jesus is the divine Son of God who was the pre-mortal “_____” of God the Father and a Heavenly _____ – thus, He is a _____ being and not eternally God
- as a created being, they believe Jesus is the spirit _____ of Lucifer and all other angels
- believe God the Father and Jesus are two _____, _____ beings (instead of two “persons” of the Godhead/Trinity)
- reject the historic, orthodox doctrine of the _____

But, was that baby born in Bethlehem really God?

The gospel message of man's redemption and reconciliation to God begins with the
_____ of Jesus Christ as "_____" in the flesh" – it is
_____ to the faith, belief, and life of all Christians
