

"Most people are egomaniacs strutting to hell thinking they're too good to be damned, trusting in their own religion. They are baptized pagans, having united with churches like they have joined country clubs, but they have never been broken over their sin. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty." Adrian Rogers

1. They underestimate God's _____

(He wants _____ to be saved)

2. They underestimate God's _____

(their _____ outpaces their _____)

3. They underestimate their _____

(and attempt to make themselves righteous)

4. They underestimate Jesus' _____

(He _____ God's standard for us)

For godly sorrow produces repentance leading to salvation, not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world produces death. 2 Cor 7:10

"Many have never been broken over their sin. Godly sorrow is not mere regret – being sorry for what we've done. It is not remorse – being sorry in the heart, seeing the sin and its consequences and not being able to see past them. Regret and remorse are dead end streets. In contrast, repentance is a highway that looks beyond the sin to Calvary. A remorseful person loves his sin and hates himself at the same time. A repentant person hates his sin because he loves his Savior. Many people waltz down our church aisles with regret and others come with remorse. But the only true way forward is repentance." Adrian Rogers