SUMMER WORSHIP TIMES

Saturday Evenings 5:00 pm

Sunday Mornings 9:30 am

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Over the past few weeks with the conflict going on in the Middle East, I've been watching the news a little bit more than usual and one of the things I've been noticing is a piece of bad theology. I wanted to highlight and see if we can't hear what the Bible has to say about it. I'm only seeking to address the theology not the politics of it all. There are many political reasons for and against the conflict in the Middle East and whatever your opinion may be is your opinion. I'm only seeking to address the false theology surrounding this issue.

"God will bless those who bless Israel and God will curse those who curse Israel." One of the great errors in the evangelical Christian community is the unwavering commitment to the nation of Israel. It is not the support itself that is inherently problematic, but the supposed theological obligation to do so. Where does this idea come from?

It stems from God's blessing of Abraham in Genesis 12:3 "I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." It sounds like it would be a straightforward issue. But the problem here is that this promise is given to Abraham and his descendants, not the modern nation state of Israel. This may raise some concern, because who else would be Abraham's descendants? Yes, ethnic Jews are the physical descendants of Abraham, but there is more to consider here.

God does not place the ultimate importance on physical lineage. His covenant people are spiritual, not merely physical. This is why both Jews and Gentiles were and still are a part of the Covenant (see Romans 11 for more details). Likewise, Romans 9:6 tells us, "For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel." If that is the case, what makes someone a descendant of Abraham and an heir of the promise? We find out in Galatians 3:7, "Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham."

In fact, this unified covenant people, regardless of ethnicity, were in God's mind when he gave the promise to Abraham. The Gospel was preached when God told Abraham that all families of the earth would be blessed, something made available not just to Jews, but to all, and made possible only through faith in Christ. (Galatians 3:8) This is because Christ is the true son of Abraham (Galatians 3:16). Therefore, those who are in Christ can rightfully be called sons of Abraham. When the promise was given to Abraham, it was fulfilled in Christ and inherited by all who are united to him in faith.

So what about a nation state? Just because a specific nation bears the name "Israel" does not mean it is truly Israel. Remember, "not all who descend from Israel belong to Israel" (Romans 9:6). So to answer the question of blessing and cursing, here is the conclusion: No, the modern nation of Israel cannot lay claim to the promise made to Abraham in Genesis 12:3, because the promise was fulfilled in Christ. If anyone can claim to be a "son" of Abraham, it is those who are in Christ, who is the true son of Abraham. The people of God have always been those who believe. The Christian church is not a new entity separate from ancient Israel, but rather Israel fulfilled in Christ. One people united by faith and separated by unbelief. The people of God are not defined by ethnicity, but by faith in Christ. This means it is dishonest to the promise of Abraham and its fulfillment to claim that the physical descendants are entitled to a promise that no longer applies to them. It is a theological disaster when we believe lives are worth risking in order to uphold bad exegesis (bad interpretation of scripture). Believe what you want about the wars in the Middle East but let us not make arguments from bad theology.

God's Blessings,
Pastor Nyck Greig

School Picnic at Pioneer on the Lake

Trinity Christian School recently held its annual school picnic at Pioneer on the Lake in Angola, and it was a beautiful day filled with joy, fellowship, and fun! Many families joined us as students enjoyed games, water balloons, tie-dyeing shirts, beach walks, and a classic hot dog lunch. The day ended with a meaningful devotion from Pastor Nyck, who encouraged us to "Endure" as it says in Hebrews 12:1, reminding us to run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Mark Willert led a time of praise in the peaceful Chapel of the Woods, lifting our voices in worship to our faithful and good God. It was a truly special way to close out the school year together in His presence.

Hope Willert's Mission Work in Zambia May 2025 Update

Ministry

Hi, everybody!

This month we jumped back into school. For those who don't know, the school here at Poetice is a Montessori school. This is a style of education that is driven primarily by student motivation and interests. (If you have more questions about what Montessori is, feel free to ask!) Myself and the other teachers here have been receiving training on Montessori schooling and so this term we made some changes to make our school more Montessori - more student-driven rather than teacher-driven. For example, one of our students is especially interested in plants and animals; so we have been taking him on walks around the Poetice base to look more closely at plants and insects that we can find, and then doing more research about these things back in the classroom (you can see him in the third picture below). This is a very different style of teaching from what I am used to and from what I learned in college, but it has been very interesting seeing how the kids react to education that is centered on their own interests.

In addition to school, there have been a few other things that I have been involved in over the past month. One of these things was painting a mural, which was so much fun! A few of the staff helped to paint two murals on the walls in the worship center which say "Jesu uli mubotu" (which means "Jesus you are beautiful" in Tonga, one of the local languages) and "Come & behold Him". I love doing artistic things, so this was so much fun for me. I loved being able to worship God through art, which is a different way from how I usually get to worship God.

In May the Intensive Training began, which is the six week missions training program that brought me to Zambia in the first place two years ago. I was able to sit in on all of the teachings for a week while a guest speaker taught about drawing near to God. Most of my role here at Poetice involves me pouring out into others, so it was nice to have a week in which I was being poured into.

Life Update

My biggest life update right now is the fact that I have a boyfriend! His name is Charles and we have been dating for almost five months now. We met during my Intensive Training two years ago, started talking more and becoming friends last year during my Extensive Training, and then started dating when I returned to Zambia in January this year. I am so thankful for him and how we have been getting to know each other more and more as well as encouraging each other to grow closer to the Lord. Now that we have been dating for a while I figured it was about time I shared with you all!

Prayer Requests

- Please pray for me as I am still very exhausted and finding it hard to get through work days because of this level of exhaustion. I am really learning what it means to rely on God as my source of strength rather than myself!
- Please pray that God would continue to fill me up so that I am able to pour out His love to my students and the youth in the community.

Thank you all so much for your prayers and support! None of this would be possible without each one of you. As always, feel free to email me if you have any questions, comments, or just want to chat!

Blessings,

Hope Willert

Cemetery News

With summer upon us, it is important to be reminded of some of the Rules & Regulations of Trinity's Cemetery:

- ANY burials or spreading of ashes in Trinity's Cemetery are prohibited without pre-approval from the Cemetery Board. Both state and cemetery regulations need to be adhered to.
- Flowers and plants should be placed in rugged, sturdy containers which can be placed on either side of the monuments. They should not be planted directly in the ground. NO glass containers are allowed in the cemetery.
- In-ground plantings (trees, shrubs, etc.) are subject to Cemetery Board approval. Approval must be given prior to anything being planted.

Pew Attendance Books

When attending church services, please remember to sign the red attendance book located in the pew holders. Visitors are encouraged to also provide an address and/or email. Thank you!

Portals of Prayer

July - Sept 2025 devotion booklets are now available. They can be found on the tables and Welcome Center in the church narthex. Please take one and use it for home devotions! Give one to a friend who may be in need too!

The Red Food Pantry Wagon

We continue to collect food to be donated to the West Seneca Food Pantry and the pantry at Bread of Life Outreach Center in Colden. Non-perishable items can be placed in the red wagon in the church entry. Thank you!

A PRAYER WHEN LIFE IS DIFFICULT

From Cries of Faith, Songs of Hope: Prayers for the Times of Our Life by John Gugel

READING

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
His steadfast love endures forever! . . .
The Lord is my strength and my might;
He has become my salvation . . .
I shall not die, but I shall live,
And recount the deeds of the Lord . . .
Open to me the gates of righteousness,
That I may enter through them
And give thanks to the Lord.

Psalm 118:1, 14, 17, and 19 (NRSV)

PRAYER

What does the future hold, Lord? What will become of me? Why do I find more questions than answers? Where are you, Lord? Do you care? Send me your Spirit. Give me confidence in your great promises and unwavering hope in your lavish mercy. Let me feel your tender compassion. Be with me, Lord. Lead me into the future where you are. Grant me a living faith and, by the strength of your arm, lighten my load. Cheer my heart, sustain me by your mighty power, and lead me in the paths of your own choosing.

In Cries of Faith, Songs of Hope, author and pastor John Gugel offers a collection of prayers that address many different kinds of needs, reflecting the Biblical psalms of lament and giving voice to longings and uncertainties deep within the heart. Each prayer is accompanied by a story, reflection, Scripture passage, or hymn stanza that speaks to the same needs. These short devotions provide comfort and encouragement to caregivers and care receivers alike during tough times in life.
