

What Lies Beneath

SMALL GROUP GUIDE

ST. ALBERT
ALLIANCE CHURCH

WELCOME!

Thank you for your willingness to be a small group leader. It is no small or simple task. You are a shepherd of God's people, on the front lines of making disciples. I am so grateful for your willing sacrifice of your time and energy to bring others closer to Jesus. Creating spaces where spiritual growth can happen is an integral part of ministry at St Albert Alliance Church, and because of each one of you, many of those spaces have been created. Know that you are a gift to our Church family and to the Body of Christ as we seek to help people grow deeper in their relationship with Jesus.

We have created this guide to help provide resources as you lead your small group during our sermon series "What Lies Beneath". The Discovery Bible Study Method (DBS) is a simple, structured way of opening the Bible with someone so that they encounter God directing through His living Word. The aim is to allow participants to discover God's truth for themselves, rather than relying on a leader. As the leader, you are there to empower them to pray, not to have all the answers. This guide will help you to facilitate your group as you engage in the Bible with one another.

I am incredibly grateful for each one of you. It is an honor to serve Jesus with you.

Pam Loeppky
Group Life Pastor

HOW TO FACILITATE A GROUP

Small Groups are groups where friends/family come together to see for themselves what the Bible says and how it can affect their lives. For the “What Lies Beneath” series we will be using the Discovery Bible Study method to guide our Small Group gatherings.

Anyone can facilitate a group! Just gather some friends/family and follow the outline and ask the questions below:

Connect

Ask a regular group member to pray and begin your group time by connecting with God. Then use one or more of the following questions to connect as a group:

- What are you thankful for?
- What’s a challenge you are facing?
- How did you do with your last ‘I Will’ statement?
- Did you share what we talked about with anyone?

Discover

Read the scripture passage and then have someone put the passage in their own words.

- What stands out to you?
- What does this text say about God?
- What does this text say about people?

The three questions listed above will be the standard questions used in the Discover section each week. An additional question may be provided from time to time in the Discover section to connect the passage with that week’s sermon.

GO

- How can you live this out in the next few days? (Create an ‘I Will’ statement)
- Who are you going to tell about what you discovered?

Pray

Ask one or more members of the group to pray for any of the challenges identified during the connect time and for each member, that they will carry through with their “I will” statements.

Tips for Facilitating

1. Ask Questions, Don't Teach (let scriptures teach, not you)
2. Focus on Obedience, not just Knowledge (knowledge best flows from obedience, not the opposite)
3. Pass off Leadership (don't let it be dependent on you)
4. Stay in the passage (puts everyone on the same page)
5. Always model easy reproducibility (don't complicate the process too much)

Principles to Remember:

Discovery Bible Studies are about:

1. Discovery Learning (not Proclamational Teaching)
 - o Discovery Groups allow people to not just consume information, but instead to actively pursue truth.
2. Obedience-Focused Discipleship
 - o Learning information doesn't change lives. DBS's focus on applying what Jesus tells us, and it's in that step of obedience we experience something way more powerful than mere knowledge.
3. Immediate Sharing & Multiplication
 - o Changed lives make others notice. When people share what's happening, it tends to go viral...

Psalms 1 NLT

¹ Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers.

² But they delight in the law of the LORD, meditating on it day and night.

³ They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season.

Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do.

⁴ But not the wicked!

They are like worthless chaff, scattered by the wind.

⁵ They will be condemned at the time of judgment. Sinners will have no place among the godly.

⁶ For the LORD watches over the path of the godly, but the path of the wicked leads to destruction.

Acts 2:42-47 NLT

⁴² All the believers devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, and to fellowship, and to sharing in meals (including the Lord's Supper), and to prayer.

⁴³ A deep sense of awe came over them all, and the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders.

⁴⁴ And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had.

⁴⁵ They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need.

⁴⁶ They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity—

¹ "I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener.

² He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn't produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more.

³ You have already been pruned and purified by the message I have given you.

⁴ Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

⁶ Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a useless branch and withers. Such branches are gathered into a pile to be burned.

⁷ But if you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted!

⁸ When you produce much fruit, you are my true disciples. This brings great glory to my Father.

⁹ "I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love.

¹⁰ When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

¹¹ I have told you these things so that you will be filled with my joy. Yes, your joy will overflow!

¹² This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you.

¹³ There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command.

¹⁵ I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me.

¹⁶ You didn't choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name.

¹⁷ This is my command: Love each other.

Ephesians 1:3-14 NLT

³ All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ.

⁴ Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes.

⁵ God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure.

⁶ So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son.

⁷ He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins.

⁸ He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding.

⁹ God has now revealed to us his mysterious plan regarding Christ, a plan to fulfill his own good pleasure.

¹⁰ And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth.

¹¹ Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan.

¹² God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God.

¹³ And now you Gentiles have also heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago.

¹⁴ The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us the inheritance he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify him.

¹ Have mercy on me, O God, because of your unfailing love.

Because of your great compassion, blot out the stain of my sins.

² Wash me clean from my guilt. Purify me from my sin.

³ For I recognize my rebellion; it haunts me day and night.

⁴ Against you, and you alone, have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your sight.

You will be proved right in what you say, and your judgment against me is just.

⁵ For I was born a sinner—yes, from the moment my mother conceived me.

⁶ But you desire honesty from the womb, teaching me wisdom even there.

⁷ Purify me from my sins, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

⁸ Oh, give me back my joy again; you have broken me—
now let me rejoice.

⁹ Don't keep looking at my sins. Remove the stain of my guilt.

¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, O God. Renew a loyal spirit within me.

¹¹ Do not banish me from your presence, and don't take your Holy Spirit from me.

¹² Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

¹³ Then I will teach your ways to rebels, and they will return to you.

¹⁴ Forgive me for shedding blood, O God who saves; then I will joyfully sing of your forgiveness.

¹⁵ Unseal my lips, O Lord, that my mouth may praise you.

¹⁶ You do not desire a sacrifice, or I would offer one. You do not want a burnt offering.

¹⁷ The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit. You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God.

¹⁸ Look with favor on Zion and help her; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Then you will be pleased with sacrifices offered in the right spirit—with burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings. Then bulls will again be sacrificed on your altar.

John 9: 1-17 NLT

³ “It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. ⁴ We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us. The night is coming, and then no one can work. ⁵ But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁶ Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man’s eyes. ⁷ He told him, “Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam” (Siloam means “sent”). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!

⁸ His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?” ⁹ Some said he was, and others said, “No, he just looks like him!”

But the beggar kept saying, “Yes, I am the same one!”

¹⁰ They asked, “Who healed you? What happened?”

¹¹ He told them, “The man they call Jesus made mud and spread it over my eyes and told me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash yourself.’ So I went and washed, and now I can see!”

¹² “Where is he now?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he replied.

¹³ Then they took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees,¹⁴ because it was on the Sabbath that Jesus had made the mud and healed him. ¹⁵ The Pharisees asked the man all about it. So he told them, “He put the mud over my eyes, and when I washed it away, I could see!”

¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus is not from God, for he is working on the Sabbath.” Others said, “But how could an ordinary sinner do such miraculous signs?” So there was a deep division of opinion among them.

¹⁷ Then the Pharisees again questioned the man who had been blind and demanded, “What’s your opinion about this man who healed you?”

The man replied, “I think he must be a prophet.”

²² Then, turning to his disciples, Jesus said, “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food to eat or enough clothes to wear.

²³ For life is more than food, and your body more than clothing.

²⁴ Look at the ravens. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for God feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than any birds!

²⁵ Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?

²⁶ And if worry can’t accomplish a little thing like that, what’s the use of worrying over bigger things?

²⁸ And if God cares so wonderfully for flowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

²⁹ “And don’t be concerned about what to eat and what to drink. Don’t worry about such things.

³⁰ These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers all over the world, but your Father already knows your needs.

³¹ Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and he will give you everything you need.

³² “So don’t be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom.

³³ “Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it.

³⁴ Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

Mark 5:24-34 NLT

²⁴ Jesus went with him, and all the people followed, crowding around him.

²⁵ A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding.

²⁶ She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse.

²⁷ She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe.

²⁸ For she thought to herself, "If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed."

²⁹ Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition.

³⁰ Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my robe?"

³¹ His disciples said to him, "Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, 'Who touched me?'"

³² But he kept on looking around to see who had done it.

³³ Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done.

³⁴ And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over."

Luke 5:17-26 NLT

¹⁷ One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of religious law were sitting nearby. (It seemed that these men showed up from every village in all Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem.) And the Lord's healing power was strongly with Jesus.

¹⁸ Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a sleeping mat. They tried to take him inside to Jesus,

¹⁹ but they couldn't reach him because of the crowd. So they went up to the roof and took off some tiles. Then they lowered the sick man on his mat down into the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

²⁰ Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the man, "Young man, your sins are forgiven."

²¹ But the Pharisees and teachers of religious law said to themselves, "Who does he think he is? That's blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!"

²² Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, "Why do you question this in your hearts?"

²³ Is it easier to say 'Your sins are forgiven,' or 'Stand up and walk'?

²⁴ So I will prove to you that the Son of Man has the authority on earth to forgive sins." Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, "Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!"

²⁵ And immediately, as everyone watched, the man jumped up, picked up his mat, and went home praising God.

²⁶ Everyone was gripped with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, "We have seen amazing things today!"

¹⁶ In a little while you won't see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again."

¹⁷ Some of the disciples asked each other, "What does he mean when he says, 'In a little while you won't see me, but then you will see me,' and 'I am going to the Father'?"

¹⁸ And what does he mean by 'a little while'? We don't understand."

¹⁹ Jesus realized they wanted to ask him about it, so he said, "Are you asking yourselves what I meant? I said in a little while you won't see me, but a little while after that you will see me again.

²⁰ I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn over what is going to happen to me, but the world will rejoice. You will grieve, but your grief will suddenly turn to wonderful joy.

²¹ It will be like a woman suffering the pains of labor. When her child is born, her anguish gives way to joy because she has brought a new baby into the world.

²² So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy.

²³ At that time you won't need to ask me for anything. I tell you the truth, you will ask the Father directly, and he will grant your request because you use my name.

²⁴ You haven't done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy.

²⁵ "I have spoken of these matters in figures of speech, but soon I will stop speaking figuratively and will tell you plainly all about the Father.

²⁶ Then you will ask in my name. I'm not saying I will ask the Father on your behalf,

²⁷ for the Father himself loves you dearly because you love me and believe that I came from God.

WHAT'S NEXT

Below are two Discovery Bible Studies you can do with your group after “What Lies Beneath” concludes.

The First Christmas (4 Weeks)

Luke 1:5-25, 57-80

Luke 1:26-56

Matthew 1:18-25

Luke 2:1-20

Stories of Hope (8 Weeks)

Mark 2:1-12

John 3:1-17

Mark 5:1-20

Luke 7:37-50

Luke 15:11-32

Luke 17:11-19

Luke 18:9-14

Luke 19:1-10

Remember the Discovery Bible Study method involves Connecting, Discovering and Going.

Connecting (ask these questions to build connection with your group each week)

- What are you thankful for?
- What's a challenge you are facing right now?
- How did you do with your last "I will" statement and did you share what you learned with others?

Discovering (follow these steps to help your group hear from God)

1. Read the Passage.
2. Someone re-tells the passage in their own words.
3. Ask:
 - a. What stands out to you?
 - b. What does this text tell us about God?
 - c. What does this text tell us about people?

Going (ask these questions to help your group apply what they have discovered to their life)

- How can you specifically live out what you are learning in this text?
- Everyone creates an "I will" statement.
- Everyone share who are they going to share what they discovered this week with.

Visit DBSGroups.com to learn more, discover tips on how to facilitate a Discovery Bible Study and lists of passages you can use with your group.
