Pastor's Pen.

Good Morning! It was the first part of this week that I was reading in my devotion by J. Vernon McGee, and it was in that devotion that these words were stated. He wrote, "There are times in our spiritual lives when we must grow up and face life with courage and maturity, leave the basics and move toward a more resilient, effective faith." That would be the call to the Hebrew Christians, and that same call is for you and me today. However, this seems to be approached in a lackadaisical manner by many, but it is one that must be embraced. There is a spiritual condition warned against in Hebrews 6:4-6,

> For in the case of those who have once been enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, 6 and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and put Him to open shame.

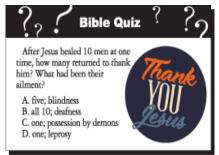

Jesus wants to reward you for your faithfulness in following His will. Your life can be like a fruitful field that benefits from fresh rain and the warm sun of spring. But to walk away from the Lord brings you out from under His protective care and provision. Like a field without rain, the crops burn up in the heat of the day. I pray you have a great and productive week. See you next Sunday.

In Christ,
