From the Pastor's Pen

Jeff Smith, Senior Pastor

Pastor's Pen,

Well, let me say, "Where has the summer gone?" It's hard to believe that school is starting this week, and before we blink, we'll be past Labor Day and rounding the home stretch toward Christmas. I recall that passage in Scripture, "Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.' Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. You are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away." The word vapor is described as a "cloud of fine particles suspended in a gas." It paints a picture of the brevity of life, which calls us to cherish the moments we have, but should challenge us to be diligent about the task the Father has called us to. Cherish the moments you have, and invest in everyone you can, because we don't know when our time will be up. Hope you have a great week.

In Christ,

Bro. Jeff Smith
