From the Pastor's Pen

Jeff Smith, Senior Pastor

Pastor's Pen,

Good morning! I trust that you have had a blessed week and are looking forward to gathering in the Lord's House with brothers and sisters in Christ. I came across this question the other day in my reading. The question was "Have you ever felt too far outside God's grace?" If that is you this morning, can I share a story from the Old Testament with you? The story comes from the book of Joshua, which the book describes the story of Rahab. Her story is told in connection with the story of the walls of Jericho. Joshua successfully led God's people across the Jordan River after their 40 years wandering in the wilderness. They came to the valley of Jericho. While they were scaling the walls at night, the spies encountered Rahab, whose apartment lay tucked in the side of one of Jericho's outer walls. But, Rahab, a prostitute, a woman who would have felt scorned by society, how much more will He offer His grace to all who turn to Him? It would be this lady, one who many would say was too far gone from the grace of God. Yet, she is one whom God used exponentially, mentioned in the "Hall of Faith" in Hebrews, and mentioned in the lineage of our Lord. All the while, her story encourages us that we are not too far gone from being used by God.

In Christ,

Bro. Jeff Smith
