From the Pastor's Pen

Jeff Smith, Senior Pastor

Pastor's Pen,

Good morning, Hillwood family! Let me begin by asking a question: "Do you feel spiritually complete, or do you feel as though something is missing?" Let me say this, "You wouldn't be the first person to feel this way, and very likely will not be the last." Many people try to add something to their spirituality to make up for some perceived lack, and no greater example of this would be the shelves upon shelves in bookstores stocked with lessons on how to try and do just that. Let me encourage you today, "You don't have to feel that way anymore," as Louie Giglio writes. There is a partnership we are called into, and that is not to come alongside Jesus and offer Him a 50/50 partnership between Christ and us. Instead, we were created to surrender all we have and live our lives through the power of Christ in us. However, there may be a skeptic, thinking this cannot be true, as though this feels too easy to be true. Some part of this equation must come from us, right? Wrong! Then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

In Christ,

Bro. Jeff Smith
