WORKSHEET #15

MULTIPLE CHOICE Place an X before the answer which is most correct.

1. God requires us to
☐ love Him above all and to love our neighbor as ourselves.
☐ give equal love to Him and to our neighbor.
☐ love our neighbor first and then to love Him since it is easier to love a person than it is to love God.
2. By our neighbor is meant
☐ only those who live close to us.
☐ all the people of the United States.
☐ anyone who is in need of our help.
3. When it comes to obeying God
☐ what we do is more important than what we say.
☐ what we think is more important than what we say or do.
☐ what we think and say and do are all of equal importance.
4. After studying the Ten Commandments carefully, the first thing we realize is that ☐ they are really not too hard to keep.
☐ we have failed to obey any of them perfectly.
☐ some new commandments are needed to keep up with modern times.
5. When God sees sin against any of the commandments
☐ this angers Him since He is a holy and perfect God.
☐ this doesn't bother Him too much since He knows nobody's perfect.
☐ He doesn't become upset as long as we do more good things than bad things.
6. The only way for us to become acceptable in God's eyes is
☐ to try as hard as we can to obey His commandments.
☐ to trust in Jesus as our personal Savior from sin.
☐ to trust in Jesus and do as many good things as we can.

7. God has justified us. This means that God has declared us to be not guilty
    ___ as soon as we prove ourselves to be innocent of committing any sins.
    ___ because He simply overlooks any sin we commit.
    ___ because Jesus became guilty in our place and suffered the punishment for sins in our place.
8. Christians want to try to obey the Ten Commandments because
    ___ it's the way we say thank you to God for sending Jesus as Savior.
    ___ it's the only way we have a chance of getting to heaven.
    ___ if we don't we'll always be getting into trouble.

TRUE-FALSE Put an X in front of each true statement.

- ( ) It is more important to love my neighbor than it is to love God.
 ( ) If my thoughts are wrong but my words and actions are O.K., that means I am keeping God's commandments.
 ( ) When I sin, the first thing I should do is to confess that sin to God and turn away from it.
 ( ) To justify means to buy back.
 ( ) A true Christian will never stop trying to obey the Ten Commandments because we know that only those who do a good job of obeying them will go to heaven.
 ( ) Jesus is the only one who ever perfectly obeyed the commandments.
 ( ) Jesus obeyed the commandments in my place and God counts His obedience and holiness as my obedience and holiness.
 ( ) If I love Jesus then I will want to try to do what pleases Him.

MATCHING Match the number of the summary statement with the proper commandment.

Memory Work

- Memorize Deuteronomy 5:29, "Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to fear me and keep all my commands always, so that it might go well with them and their children forever!"

Review for test on March 1

- Begin to review the commandments and memory passages for commandments five through ten. Make sure you know what each commandment talks about. For example: the 4th commandment talks about honoring your parents. What does the 5th commandment talk about?
- Look over your notes from class. Make sure you understand them.
